

WOMAN TELLS OF VISITS TO SALOONS TO BUY EVIDENCE

Mrs. William Thompson of Wellston Got Husband to Help Her in Crusade That Led to Six Arrests.

FOUND 50 WOMEN IN ONE PLACE

Says Waiter Stated They Need Have No Fear of Raid and Served Them Without Any Questions.

"Conditions in St. Louis County are worse than they have been for years. Gambling houses flourish, and respectable saloons serve liquor to girls out of their teens. The sheriff's office had done nothing to improve conditions so we decided to take a hand ourselves."

Thus Mrs. William Thompson of Wellston explains the activity of herself and her husband which resulted yesterday in the issuance of dry warrants against the proprietors of six county saloons. All of the cases were made by the Thompsons, who at their own expense visited the saloons and made purchases of liquor.

Mrs. Thompson, a plump, gray-haired woman, today discussed with a Post-Dispatch reporter the conditions which led to her campaign against county saloons and expressed her intention of continuing her crusade with the help of her husband.

Says They Aren't Fanatics.

"We are not fanatics," Mrs. Thompson said at her home at 2126 Cherry avenue. "I think that under proper conditions, the enforcement of the law should be left in the hands of the regularly constituted authorities. But when the law enforcing agencies break down and conditions reach the state that they have now attained in St. Louis County, then it is time for the citizens to take a hand."

Mrs. Thompson was the leader of a delegation of women which recently went to Clayton with a demand that law-enforcement conditions be improved in the county. She also financed the visit of a delegation to Gov. Baker at Jefferson City.

"It was as a result of that activity that I decided to go out and make cases against the more flagrant violators of the law," she said. "I have been receiving communications from time to time telling me of conditions at county resorts."

"I asked my husband to help me. We visited the worst of the resorts, usually with friends, bought liquor and finally submitted our evidence to prosecuting attorney Mueller, who issued warrants."

"Terrible Places." "I know of no way to describe most of the saloons we visited except to call them terrible places. At the saloon of John Gerzen on Riva avenue, for example, where we purchased liquor without any questions asked the waiter told us we need not fear a raid while we were there."

"Girls were drinking at many of the tables. There were 50 women there at a conservative estimate. Before our visit I had talked to residents of the vicinity of the saloon and was told that the place was operating on into the early morning hours."

"It is a common thing, they told me to hear young girls screaming as they try to ward off the advances of men with whom they have visited the place. The sisters in the convent at the foot of Riva avenue confirmed these stories, and the sister with whom I talked said she would pray for success for me in cleaning up the place."

Task an Easy One. Buying drinks at the saloons was not difficult, Mrs. Thompson said. She pointed to a row of bottles on the buffet at the Thompson home as evidence of the efficiency of herself and her husband as volunteer dry sleuths.

Mrs. Thompson said she and her husband are of the Methodist faith, but are not members of any reform organization, although Mrs. Thompson now contemplates joining the W. C. T. U. Thompson has been for years a fireman at the Armour packing plant and assists his wife in her "clean up" work during his recreation hours.

Their work against law violators will be continued until the regularly appointed agencies get to work, Mrs. Thompson declared. "And that isn't all," she concluded. "We're going after the gambling houses, too. The county is literally full of them and we will make cases against them along with the saloons."

Have Two Daughters. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson have two daughters, both married. The saloonkeepers named in warrants issued yesterday on affidavits made by the Thompsons were: Fred Lehenkohl of 9401 South Broadway; Malcolm McDonald of Upper Creve Coeur Lake; Andrew Kasper of 2281 South Broadway; Carlo Gorillo of Edmundson avenue and St. Charles road; Martin Kettler of 2300 South Broadway, and Gergen.

Join Hands Again—as Crusaders

—By a Post-Dispatch Staff Photographer.

Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson photographed today at their home, 2126 Cherry avenue, Wellston, as they surveyed evidence gained in their volunteer crusade against county saloons and wine gardens. As a result of affidavits made by them, Prosecuting Attorney Mueller yesterday issued State dry law warrants against six county saloonkeepers.

SIGNS BILL ON POWERS OF PROBATE JUDGES

Governor Approves Measure Dealing With Executors Under Contested Wills.

By the Jefferson City Correspondent. JEFFERSON CITY, May 7.—Gov. Baker today signed a bill curbing the power of Probate Judges to remove the executor of an estate, when a will contest is filed, except when the executor is shown to have some direct beneficial interest in the estate adverse to that of the contestant. The bill will become effective as a law on July 9.

The bill provides that when a will contest is instituted, the Probate Judge shall appoint the executor named in the will, as administrator pending termination of the contest, unless it can be shown in a hearing that he has some beneficial interest in the estate, in addition to commission and fees allowed by law. The bill is mandatory as to such appointments.

When Removal May Be Made. If the executor is shown to have some such beneficial interest, the Probate Judge then may appoint some disinterested person or corporation to act as administrator, pending termination of the contest.

The bill was designed to break up the practice, in some instances, of Probate Judges regularly removing executors when a will contest is involved, it was said, and appointing some member of a small group of lawyers to act as administrator pending close of the will litigation. These administrators frequently collect large fees when large estates are involved, it was said, and additional expenses are incurred for the estate through fee allowances to attorneys representing the administrator.

Senator Kinney of St. Louis introduced the bill in the Senate, and it was favored by many trust companies.

Ten Other Bills Signed. Baker signed 10 other Senate and House bills today. Among them were measures defining light perception tests in determining eligibility to blind pensions; relating to the grading and inspection of grain; appropriating $600,000 for payment of refunds of the State gasoline tax to persons purchasing gasoline for use other than in motor vehicles; and providing that when a grade crossing is eliminated on a State highway not more than one-half the cost shall be apportioned to the State Highway Commission.

The Governor today stated he would veto a bill which would require the State to pay $12.50 a week toward the support of charity patients in county tuberculosis hospitals, instead of $5 a week, as provided under the present law.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR LUSITANIA DEAD

John Drew to Offer Eulogy in Memory of Charles Frohman at Ceremonies Today.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, May 7.—Memorial services in Town Hall this afternoon will mark the tenth anniversary of the sinking of the Lusitania, with the loss of 1198 lives, including 124 Americans. Clergymen of all faiths, naval officers and civilians and relatives or friends of some of the victims are on the program.

John Drew, the actor, is scheduled for an address in memory of Charles Frohman, theatrical producer, who lost his life on the Lusitania. Drew announced recently that a group of Frohman's friends had arranged to have a special memorial tablet for him in connection with the monument proposed for erection at Washington, dedicated to those lost at sea.

Mme. Lucille de Vescevi will sing the national anthem and read an account of the disaster written by her brother, Dr. Silvio de Vescevi, who personally rescued 24 women and children from the sinking vessel.

Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske, U. S. N., retired, will speak. The Lusitania left New York Saturday, 1915, carrying 1257 passengers. Friday afternoon, off the Irish coast, the lookout on the forward head shouted that a torpedo was coming on the starboard bow. A moment later there was an explosion, which flooded the boiler room, shutting off the power. The ship slowly keeled over until her funnels filled with water.

Among those who lost their lives were Alfred G. Vanderbilt, Charles Frohman and Mrs. Elbert Hubbard. Capt. Turner went down with the ship but later recovered.

Lieut. Francis C. Schaefer, who commanded the German submarine in the sinking of the Lusitania, was lost with all his crew.

Three Killed at Rail Crossing. Several persons were killed and a fourth was seriously injured when an automobile was struck by a Pennsylvania railroad train early today. The dead: Curvin Wolgast, 17 years old; Eva Diehl, 21, his companion, and Mary Cooke, 19, all of York.

whom he intended delivering it. On March 17, 1924, he was arrested on a truck at Fourteenth and Wright streets. The truck contained 4500 stints of supposed beer in cartons. "I don't know," Reinecke replied to questions. On March 27, 1924, Reinecke and another young man were arrested on a truck at Broadway and Tyler street. Three barrels of supposed beer were on the truck.

DYER APPLIES FOR PARDON FOR RENARD

Prosecutor of Egan Gangsters Would Reward Informer for Services at Trials.

Application for a pardon or parole for Ray Renard, Egan gangster, as a reward for his services to the Government as a witness against Egan gangsters and others in the trials of the St. Louis and Staunton mail robbery cases, which resulted in their conviction, has been made to James A. Finch, Pardon and Parole Attorney of the Department of Justice, at Washington. The application was made in Renard's behalf by Horace L. Dyer, who was special prosecutor for the Government in the trials and was instrumental in getting Renard to testify against his fellow gangsters. In recommending a pardon, or a parole if a pardon is not favored, Dyer said he stated fully the nature of Renard's services to the Government.

Dyer's recommendation was accompanied by a letter from R. Wayne Ely, who, as an Assistant United States District Attorney, prosecuted the case which resulted in Renard's conviction of stealing from an interstate shipment and his sentence of seven years to the Federal penitentiary at Atlanta, where he now is.

Ely's letter, Dyer explained, did not recommend a pardon or parole for Renard, but merely stated there was no doubt that Renard's testimony in the mail robbery cases had been of value to the Government. Dyer intends to seek recommendations of other persons in an official position in St. Louis to supplement his own.

The procedure in pardon cases is for the pardon attorney to conduct a hearing at which those favoring or opposing the application can be heard. He then reports to the President and the Attorney-General and the latter makes a recommendation to the President, upon whom the final decision rests.

about $100 in my pocket. But I couldn't enjoy myself. I went to a movie in Detroit, but couldn't get interested. I heard the Browns were in town and wanted to see them play, because they were from St. Louis, and I was homesick. But I was afraid there might be some one there who knew me and that I would be grabbed.

"I thought I had a system to beat the game, but there is no system. Now I'm going to do all I can to break up the games and keep other men from doing what I did. I'm glad my Maplewood friends met me like they did. I was worried about how they would receive me."

"I started gambling two years ago and only intended to borrow money. The first year I sometimes made as much as $500 in a night, but when the city audited my books a year ago I was just able to put back what I had taken. This year I wasn't lucky and lost farther and farther in the hole until it was a question of committing suicide or leaving, so I left."

HERMAN HUNICKE, FINANCIER, DIES

He Spent Nearly 62 of His 81 Years With Liberty Central Trust Co.

Application for a pardon or parole for Ray Renard, Egan gangster, as a reward for his services to the Government as a witness against Egan gangsters and others in the trials of the St. Louis and Staunton mail robbery cases, which resulted in their conviction, has been made to James A. Finch, Pardon and Parole Attorney of the Department of Justice, at Washington. The application was made in Renard's behalf by Horace L. Dyer, who was special prosecutor for the Government in the trials and was instrumental in getting Renard to testify against his fellow gangsters. In recommending a pardon, or a parole if a pardon is not favored, Dyer said he stated fully the nature of Renard's services to the Government.

Through his declining years Hunicke was an enthusiastic pedestrian, and spent much time out of doors. He had little use for such modern mechanical devices as automobiles, radios and airplanes, but liked most to work in his garden and look after his flock of chickens. His home, at 565 Tiffin avenue, Ferguson, was a veritable show place, with its great flower beds, trees and shrubs.

Born in Germany. Hunicke was born in Bremen, Germany, July 2, 1843, and came to this country when he was 15 years old, traveling alone. After a short stay in New Orleans, he came to St. Louis by steamboat and began his business career here as a clerk for a commission firm. At the outbreak of the Civil War, however, he enlisted in the United States Reserve Corps and shortly afterward entered service as a member of the Fourth Missouri Volunteer Infantry. He was a Sergeant at the time of his discharge in 1863.

Following his army career, Hunicke entered the banking business with the German Savings Bank, which was housed in small stove-heated quarters at Market and Main streets. He remained with this institution throughout his career, it becoming the Liberty Bank in 1915 and the Liberty Central Trust Co. in 1921.

Took Walk Daily. Since the death of his wife many years ago, he lived alone, but took his meals at the home of his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Hughes, residing next door. He walked five blocks daily from his home to the train and was always at his desk by 9 a. m.

Besides Mrs. Hughes, he is survived by four grandchildren, Edwin, Harry, Martin and Helen Hughes. Funeral services will be held at the residence at 2:30 p. m. Saturday and the body will be cremated at Valhalla Cemetery. Until 9 a. m. Saturday the body, clad in the uniform of a G. A. R. veteran, will lie in state at an undertaking parlor at 3322 South Grand boulevard. Hunicke was a member of the Frank P. Blair Post, G. A. R.

COMMITTEE HOPES TO STAGE 'THE MIRACLE'

With $100,000 Raised, Gest Is Asked for Lowest Acceptable Guarantee.

With $100,000 of the $200,000 guarantee fund raised for staging "The Miracle" in St. Louis already in sight, Charles F. Hatfield, chairman of the Miracle Organization, announced today that the body expects to sign the contract on May 18 for the production when Morris Gest, New York producer, returns to St. Louis for a final conference with the committee.

Hatfield expressed a belief that Gest would be willing to accept a far smaller sum than $200,000 as a guarantee. In view of the prospects for a run here more profitable than that in Cleveland, which netted $44,000 in excess of expenditures. With this possibility in view the organization committee sent the producer a telegram yesterday inquiring as to the lowest acceptable figure.

At a meeting of the committee at Hotel Statler yesterday, Ben Atwell, who promoted the undertaking in Cleveland, addressed an assemblage of 25 or 30 representative business men and offered to aid this city in any way possible in bringing the spectacle here. He said that St. Louis, through profiting by Cleveland's mistakes, might save as much as a third of the entire cost. He also pointed to several features which indicate a more successful run here than was experienced in the Ohio city.

Receipts in Cleveland. In Cleveland, the total receipts for the three weeks stay were $401,000. Because the St. Louis Coliseum affords 2000 more seats than did the Cleveland auditorium, the promoters estimate the revenue here would total $500,000 if as great enthusiasm is aroused, and Atwell declared the enterprise, in Cleveland never at any time had the support that already is in evidence here.

One advantage offered in St. Louis, Atwell said, is the support of the railroads, which already have agreed to arrange special rates and run special trains from points in the surrounding trade territory. The railroads did not co-operate in this way in Cleveland and because of this, several bus lines were established to bring in the thousands who came from neighboring cities.

Kiel Named Chairman. The support from the surrounding territory was greater than that in the city itself, Atwell said, largely due to the fact that the publicity campaign was begun at the outside of the circle and advanced toward the center. When many of the city residents woke up near the end of the run, he said, they found the seats had all been taken by the outsiders.

By resolution, former Mayor Kiel was appointed permanent chairman of the organization committee yesterday with the authority to appoint finance, promotion and other committees to handle various phases of the undertaking.

150 MORE ARRESTS BY POLICE IN RAIDS

Still and Liquor Seized, Six Alleged Handbook Makers Taken.

Police continued their clean-up campaign yesterday, making 150 arrests. A number of those arrested are known police characters, others were charged with possession of liquor, and six men were taken in handbook raids. The latter will be charged with vagrancy under the section providing for the punishment of persons following an unlawful calling.

Captain Johnson, of the Dayton Street District, with a number of his men, raided the residence of Heyman and Yetta Silverman, at 2950 Dickson street, upon receipt of an anonymous letter stating that whisky was being made there, in a front room on the third floor. Police found 15 50-gallon barrels and one 25-gallon barrel of whisky mash, two 50-gallon capacity copper stills, not operating, and a number of empty sugar sacks. Silverman and his wife denied knowledge of the contraband, stating that they had rented the third floor to two men several weeks ago. No arrests were made.

When two policemen entered the saloon of August Fontana at 529 Fountain avenue, at 5:30 p. m., a customer ran out a side door. Fontana was seen to empty a glass of liquor into a drain. The customer, who was caught a few feet down the street, was Andrew Pennington, 4221 Vernon avenue. A half-pint bottle of whisky was found in his pocket, which he said he had purchased from Fontana. Both were arrested.

In a raid on a negro restaurant at 2793 Lombard avenue, conducted by Mrs. Orville Hendricks, police found a quart bottle of whisky in a closer in a rear room, and a half-pint bottle in a coat hanging in the restaurant. The coat belonged to Carrie Mitchell, a negro waitress. Both were arrested.

ARRESTS FOLLOW REPORTED BOASTS ABOUT 'NEW GANG'

Two Ex-Convicts Held in Connection With Holdup of Old Orchard Bank at Webster Groves.

MONEY IDENTIFIED AS PART OF LOOT

One of Men Taken Into Custody Designated as Member of the Robbery Band.

Boasts reported to the police to have been made by an ex-convict that he had a gang which would succeed the Egan gang of gunmen, led to the raid of his headquarters yesterday and to his arrest, along with a companion, in the investigation of the $1700 robbery yesterday morning of the Old Orchard Bank, Webster Groves. Money found on the two men was identified as part of the bank loot, and the second man was identified as one of the robbers serving the bank. The prisoners were Charles Heuer, 21, who has served a robbery term in the Missouri prison and was reported to painting of competitors. He boasted about his "new" gang here, and John P. Walker, a four-time ex-convict, who was identified as one of the bank robbers.

Three of Men Masked. While one robber remained at the wheel of a Hudson speedster and drove between the bank and a number yard, four men, three of whom masked, held up the bank and quickly escaped. The loss at the bank was placed at about $500. Heuer and Walker are two of the three men under bond on charges of attempted burglary at the Hept Bakery Co., 1627 Middle street, on April 22. Policemen had arrested them.

Chief of Detectives Kaiser was informed of Heuer's supposed escape recently and told his men to look for the place where Heuer was hiding. On Monday, Heuer was arrested. He was known to associate with a man to a house at Cler place and near road, Carverville. It was alleged to co-operate with county authorities in a raid on the house on Saturday.

When the theft of two automobiles put the police on the alert for a bank or payroll robbery, three men held up the manager of the Holmdorf garage, 1238 Midland avenue, at midnight. He and stole the Buick sedan owned by Holmdorf, 1244 Midland. The car later was recovered on Olive Street road, which indicated an attack on the thieves, or fight among themselves. A few days after this theft, at 6 a. m. Monday, apparently the three men held up a negro waitress in the Plymouth Garage, 5909 South avenue, and stole the 1924 speedster of C. E. Farrington, 1231 Hamilton avenue.

Detectives on Watch. Detectives were placed quickly to the banks and payrolls yesterday when the work came that a speedster had been used in the Old Orchard State Bank robbery. Detectives and county Sheriff's were dispatched to the Carverville house at once. "A bunch" of men were arrested in the house was found Schweitzer, a card case, which had been left by the Buick. Meanwhile, Farrington's Hudson was found abandoned at University City. On it was a license which had been stolen from him, which was the number that had been noted by the bank cashier in the bank robbery. When the raiders reached the house they found three men and women there. Two of the men described themselves as Stone and Jack Rosenbaum. Heuer, who was arrested at the bank robbery, was identified by Henry W. Walthman at the Plymouth garage, as among those who stole the Buick. The police announced the raiders had in the vicinity of two hours later, at 2 p. m., nabbed and were arrested. Still, Charles Slaby, former bar tender, for "Dinty" Colbeck, Egan's lawyer, at the Maxwellton, arrived and was arrested. He served a 10-year prison term for robbery and was to go to trial today on a charge of attempting to bank at Florissant. In his hands was some currency bearing the name which have not been extended.

Identification Announced. Walker was identified as one of the bank robbers. Chief Deputy Sheriff Dodd announced, by M. A. Stone, a salesman for the Williamson Lumber Co., adjoining the bank, and by G. A. Redman, bank supply salesman, who was arrested at the place. He said he was in front of the bank yard when the four men without a mask. Block Walker step and threaten Redman. Redman declared that Walker

AWARDED PRIZE OF ROME IN SCULPTURE

Walker Hancock Wins 3-Year Scholarship and $1250 Annual Stipend.

Walker Hancock, 23 years old, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Scott Hancock of 4322 McPherson avenue, is this year's winner of the Prize of Rome in sculpture. The award entitles him to three years' residence and art study in the American Academy in Rome, and an annual stipend of $1250.

Three months ago, Hancock won the George D. Widener Memorial gold medal for the most meritorious work in sculpture in the annual exhibition of the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts, at Philadelphia. He studied in the Pennsylvania Academy three years, and in the past year has shared a studio in Gloucester, Mass., with Charles Grafty, a sculptor of note. He held the Creeson European Traveling scholarship, of the Pennsylvania Academy, and spent a year in study abroad.

Earlier in his art studies, Hancock won awards at the St. Louis School of Fine Arts, and in the Artists' Guild competition.

The Prize of Rome in sculpture, an equal prize in painting, has been awarded annually for 25 years. The winner of this year's prize in painting, according to New York dispatch, is Michael Joseph Mueller of the Yale School of Fine Arts.

The prize in sculpture is donated by Samuel L. Parrish of Southampton, L. I., and that in painting is provided by the Jacob H. Lamm Fund of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York.

Two Held for Anarchistic Plot.

COPENHAGEN, May 7.—Two notorious criminals are being held on a charge of approaching the Soviet envoy, M. Kolbetzky, with an offer to kill Premier Stauning, Minister of Public Welfare Borglum, and other public men and set fire to the Government buildings. The arrests were made when the Soviet envoy informed the Danish authorities.

ARRESTS FOLLOW REPORTED BOASTS ABOUT 'NEW GANG'

MONEY IDENTIFIED AS PART OF LOOT

One of Men Taken Into Custody Designated as Member of the Robbery Band.

Officers reported to the police to have been made by an ex-convict that he had a gang which would rob the Egan gang of gunmen, to the raid of his headquarters yesterday and to his arrest, along with a companion, in the investigation of the $1700 robbery yesterday morning of the Old Orchard Bank, Webster Groves.

Money found on the two men was identified as part of the bank loot and the second man was identified as one of the robbers seen entering the bank. The prisoners are Charles Heuer, 25, who has served a robbery term in the Missouri penitentiary, and a four-time ex-convict, who was identified as one of the bank robbers.

Three Men Masked. While one robber remained at the wheel of a Hudson speedster driven between the bank and a rear yard, four men, three of whom were masked, held up the bank and quickly escaped. The loot at the bank was placed at about $5000. Heuer and Walker are two of three men under bond on charges of attempted burglary at the Heuer Bakery Co., 1627 Middle Street on April 22. Policemen had arrested them.

Chief of Detectives Kaiser was armed of Heuer's supposed associates recently and told his men to look for the place where Heuer and his friends looted. On Monday, Lieutenant Heggen, described a man accused of burglary, known to associate with Heuer, to a house at Erie place and Carsonville. It was alleged to co-operate with county authorities in a raid on the house Saturday.

After the theft of two automobiles, put the police on the alert for a bank or payroll robbery. The men held up the manager of the Hoddington garage, 1228 Belmont avenue, at midnight Sunday and stole the Buick sedan owned by Harold Schwab, 1244 American place. The car later was recovered on Olive Street road, where a bullet hole, which indicated an attack on the thieves, or hit among themselves. A few days after this theft, at 6 a. m., Sunday, apparently the same men held up a negro watchman at the Plymouth Garage, 5909 South avenue, and stole the Hudson speedster of C. E. Farrington, 1221 Hamilton avenue.

Detectives on Watch. Detectives were placed quietly to watch banks and payrolls yesterday when the word came that an Old Orchard Bank had been robbed. Detectives and county Deputies were dispatched to the Carsonville house at once.

The house was found Schwartz, a yard case which had been left in the Buick. Meanwhile, Farrington's Hudson was found abandoned in University City. On it was a list which had been stolen from the bank robbery. The bank cashiers had been reached when the raiders reached the house. They found three men and two women there. Two of the women described themselves as Rose and Jack Rosenbaum.

They were identified by Henry Heuer, as among those who stole the car. The police announced that the raiders hid in the vicinity of the house for two hours later, at 2 p. m., when Heuer and Walker arrived in a car and were arrested. Still later, Charles Sisley, former barman for "Dinty" Colbeck, Egan leader, at the Maxwellton arrived and was arrested. He served a 10-year prison term for robbery and was to go to trial today on a charge of participating in the recent robbery at Florissant. In his home was some currency bearing the name which had not been exposed.

Identification Announced. Heuer was identified as one of the bank robbers. Chief Deputy Sheriff Doherty announced by M. A. Lumber Co., adjoining the bank, and by G. A. Redman, a supply salesman, who was called to enter the place. Heuer was in front of the bank when the four men left the bank. Walker took one without a mask. Black Walker stop and threaten Redman declared that Walker

What School Girls Should And Should Not Wear

Flapper and Her Ancestor Clash in Style Parade.

Twenty-Eight Kirkwood High School Girls' in Gowns of Own Make, Display Correct and Incorrect in Dress.

A flapper of 1925, a bride of 30 years ago, fashionable ladies of the 60s, 70s, 80s and 90s, impersonated by high school girls in costumes resurrected from the wardrobes of their ancestors were displayed in contrast to the costume of the girl of today in a fashion parade at Kirkwood High School by the class in domestic arts and sciences yesterday afternoon.

Some points upon which the modern costume scored in the contest as summed up by the teacher, Miss Ella Nora Miller, as she introduced the models, were as follows. The modern frock was cut from a yard and a half to 3 yards of material, while that of her predecessor required from 10 to 15 yards; the modern girl's frock weighed from one to one and a half pounds, while one dating 1890, with stiffly-boned bodice, lined and stiffened skirt and headed black dolman, weighed 12 pounds.

Economy in time of construction was another point in favor of the modern garb. Stitched by machinery it materializes in a few hours where the elaborate one of other days sometimes required weeks in the making.

Correct and incorrect costumes for school wear, for shopping, for sports, for evening wear and for housework, were shown also by living examples. A frock of black crepe, sleeveless, low-necked, much embellished and worn with champagne-colored stockings, high-heeled shoes and a string of beads, provided the horrible example of what a schoolgirl should not wear to school, while a frock having a red woolen waist, with skirt attached of black and white checked staid to him: "Get the hell out of here and keep away till everything settles down." None of the six officers, employees and customers who were in the bank has identified any of the prisoners. All the prisoners deny connection with the robbery.

Heuer, when arrested, had $297 in bills in his pockets and Walker had $250. W. F. Barth, cashier of the bank, and J. B. Ackfeld, vice president, have identified marks on some of these bills as those made by Barth in accounting. One $2 bill which Heuer had was marked "50." A $5 bill which Walker had was marked "105" and "115," both numbers being scratched in pencil. In the Carsonville house were found a safe-breaking outfit, including hammers, punches, drills, files and candles, and the front page of a newspaper, on which was featured an account of the murder of Edward O'Brien, bus driver accused of turning holdup man, whose body was found on April 9 on Plymouth avenue, near the city limits. The police think that associates of Heuer may know something about that crime.

TROTZKY BACK IN MOSCOW FROM POLITICAL EXILE

Former Red Army Leader, Pardoned by Soviet Rulers, Is Willing to Take Any Post.

By the Associated Press. MOSCOW, May 7.—Leon Trotsky, deposed Soviet War Minister, returned to Moscow this morning from Sukhum, Transcaucasia, after four months' isolation, ready to accept any position the Government may offer him.

The former Red army leader, granted absolution for his political heresy on his promise to obey the dictates of the party and observe all the rules of strict bolshevism, probably will be offered the commissariat of foreign trade, vacated by Leon Krassin's appointment as Ambassador to France.

This post, Trotsky's friends hope, will help restore him to some degree of power by leading to a more responsible place in the Cabinet.

While Trotsky still has hopes of regaining his place in charge of the Red army, it is believed Gen. Frunze, who succeeded him in the war ministry, will be left in that position.

No Welcoming Crowd. Trotsky was accompanied from Transcaucasia by a few members of his personal staff and by his wife, who has been his sole counselor during his recent political vicissitudes.

There was no crowd to welcome the former Minister of War and nothing in the nature of an official reception. Only a few railroad police and officials of the station, several of Trotsky's former secretaries, a few newspaper men, and Trotsky's 17-year-old son, were present when the train arrived.

This apparent indifference is believed to reflect the attitude of the general public toward Trotsky. The people seem to care little about the future of the once powerful political figure.

At first Trotsky appeared depressed and tired, but his face brightened when he saw the small group awaiting him, and he engaged in animated conversation with those friends. Comments were made upon his aged appearance. His hair is much grayer than it was a year ago and there are deep lines in his face, showing, his friends said, the great mental distress he has experienced since his demotion from leadership of the Red army.

'YOU ARE NOW BEING HELD UP' "It Looks Like It," Oil Station Manager Replies to Robber. "You are now being held up."

Robert Baldwin, manager of the Standard Oil Co. station at Sarah street and Page boulevard, had no doubt of the truth of this announcement, made at the station at 6:40 p. m. yesterday by a man who emphasized his statement by producing Baldwin in the ribs with a revolver.

"It looks like it," Baldwin commented. The robber took $47 from the cash register and fled.

LIQUOR STREAM DAMMED UP, SAY DRY OFFICIALS

Declare War on Rum Fleet Has Prevented a Single Bottle From Coming Ashore.

By the Associated Press. NEW YORK, May 7.—On sea and on land, prohibition forces today continued their war of extermination against Rum Row and its agents ashore. During the night the Coast Guard fleet operating against rum runners had the added task of battling against a 45-mile gale.

With the blockade of Rum Row said by Federal agents to have been made 100 per cent effective in less than two days, prohibition agencies in New York and surrounding counties, have initiated a cleanup which they say will make it impossible to procure liquor inland.

Dry officials assert that not a case, not even one bottle of liquor, has been brought ashore on the coast under surveillance since the blockade was imposed.

The seaplanes, 13 in number, have joined the coast guard fleet, they are being used in mapping and photographing the positions of the contraband carriers, as well as scouting for shore boats in the area between shore and the 12-mile limit.

One development expected to be helpful in dry law enforcement was the discovery that persons who inform the Government of violations leading to the arrest of marine rum runners, may receive 25 per cent of the fine as a reward from the Government and may obtain a quarter of the proceeds from the sale of confiscated boats.

Federal Judge John C. Knox, in closing a soft drink stand for six months yesterday, said owners of such property should be held equally guilty with the seller and possessor of liquor.

Some Canadian war veterans are all stirred up over the blockade. At a meeting in Victoria, B. C., speakers said that the big fleet operating against Rum Row was violating the Washington conference agreement for limitation of naval armament. More than 60 boats, large and small, are now patrolling Rum Row. The fleet is directed by wireless from Washington and is aided by a detail of 12 airplanes.

COUNCIL OF CATHOLIC WOMEN RE-ELECTS ALL OFFICERS

Convention Closes After Adopting 14 Resolutions, Including One Opposing Birth Control. The third annual convention of the Council of Catholic Women of the St. Louis Archdiocese closed at Hotel Statler yesterday with the re-election of all officers and the adoption of 14 resolutions.

Among the resolutions adopted were ones favoring the elimination of the war, praising the Government campaign against traffic in narcotics, pledging co-operation to women in industry to better their wage, living and working conditions, condemning the growing contempt for law whether by public outbreak or secrecy conspiracy, and opposing Federal control of education, Oregon's compulsory education law and the Cummins-Vall bill for the legalization of dissemination of birth control information.

Mary MacSwiney Here; Explains Passport Episode

"Came Into This Country on Ray of the Eclipse and That Is Not Unlawful"—Denies She Defied United States.

Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of Terence MacSwiney, Lord Mayor of Cork, who died in Brixton Prison, London, in 1920, following a 74-day hunger strike, arrived in St. Louis today on her second tour of the United States in behalf of the Irish Republican movement. It was her second visit to St. Louis, she having spoken at the Odeon in 1921 on her former tour.

At Hotel Jefferson, where she was greeted by a committee from the Erskine Childers Council of the American Association for the Recognition of the Irish Republic, under whose auspices she will speak tonight at Rock Church Hall, Grand boulevard and Finney avenue, she described her present tour, which since January has carried her from coast to coast; described the conditions in Ireland today from the Republican viewpoint; and terminated an interview with an interesting explanation of the Chicago passport incident.

"I had already spoken in cities in New York, Connecticut, Massachusetts and Washington, D. C.," she related, "when I came to Chicago. Imagine my surprise when a Chicago newspaper published a story that I said I was in this country without a passport, would not obtain one and it arrested by the United States would go on a hunger strike."

"Did Not Defy United States." "All of which was false. I did not defy the United States, nor would I; I have too much respect for your laws not to obey them while in your country. Now, a hunger strike is a very serious thing. I would only go on a hunger strike when I am arrested unlawfully, as I have been arrested by England before."

"It all came about through some English agent, who perpetrated the false story. I received a letter from the immigration office in Chicago, in which they asked me to call at my convenience and to show my passport. I explained I did not have a passport with me, and also that I was forced to leave Chicago on my tour at once, which I did. As to the passport itself, that is another matter. I am now going to give England the satisfaction of finding out. You can say that I came into this country on a ray of the eclipse and that is not unlawful." Miss MacSwiney recalled that her previous tour was preceded by an appearance before a committee of one hundred, sitting at Washington, investigating political conditions in Ireland. Upon that occasion she was accompanied by the widow of her brother.

"Conditions are still frightful," she continued. "The Irish Free State is neither Irish, free nor a state. The governments both at Dublin and Belfast are English. The parliaments, armies and treasuries are all controlled by the King. The councils, or local government, have been suppressed. We are living under the constant terror of the black and tans."

"This condition cannot go on, because we are determined it won't. We of the Republican movement take the position that independence is an alienable right, just as life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness as described in your Declaration of Independence. Our position is identical with that of George Washington, Samuel Adams and others, in 1776. The English Government then offered the revolutionists everything in the way of freedom—free trade, free ports, treasury and armies—if only they would acknowledge the crown.

MISSISSIPPI SUES FORD FOR $12,000,000

Criminal Conspiracy to Violate Anti Trust Laws of State Charged.

By the Associated Press. JACKSON, Miss., May 7.—W. J. Miller, State revenue agent, today filed in the chancery court of Hinds County here, a suit against the Ford Motor Co., charging a criminal conspiracy to violate the anti-trust laws of Mississippi, and seeking to collect penalties totaling $12,000,000.

All local Ford dealers in Mississippi and the banking institutions with which they transact business are made co-defendants and the State revenue agent seeks to attach the funds of the Ford Motor Co. on deposit in the several banks to guarantee payment of penalties in event the suit is sustained in the courts.

The bill of complaint is based on contracts between the Ford Motor Co. and its local dealers and alleges that contracts violate the anti-trust laws of Mississippi; that they are in restraint of trade, inimical to the public welfare, and constitute an unlawful and criminal conspiracy.

The bill also charges that the Ford Motor Co. and its distributors, for this district, the Bluff City Motor Co. of Memphis, requires an agreement with local dealers fixing the resale price of Ford automobiles, that dealers are forced to sell to the public cars at the exact price fixed in this agreement, a copy of which is made an exhibit to the bill of complaint.

The State revenue agent also seeks writ of attachment against all railway lines in the State, covering whatever Ford cars may be in transit. Practically every banking institution in the state is named as co-defendant.

PRINCE IN OSTRIAN COUNTRY

By the Associated Press. GEORGE, Cape Colony, May 7.—The Prince of Wales arrived here in the midst of the ostrich country, yesterday. The entire place was a riot of ostrich feathers, even the engines pulling the royal trains being decorated with them. The Prince was welcomed by a command of 150 local farmers, all of them wearing feathers in their hats. After the reception all the feathers were handed to the eldest burglar, who presented them to the Prince.

The royal party remained in George over night. The Prince attended a dance.

DEPOT FOR LIQUOR TRAFFIC RAIDED, STOCKS SEIZED

400 Gallons of Alcohol and Whisky Found at 331 South 14th Street After Visit to Adjoining Saloon

General prohibition agents yesterday afternoon raided a distribution depot for liquor traffic at 331 South Fourteenth street, which members of the raiding party discovered while conducting a search of the saloon of Frank Dinaggio, 223 South Fourteenth street, adjoining the depot.

The raid on Dinaggio's saloon followed the purchase of a drink of liquor in the place by a prohibition agent several days ago. When a search warrant was served on Dinaggio yesterday by James Dillon, chief of the raiding squad, the only evidence found was a quantity of labels of prohibition brands of whisky. The finding of the labels caused the agents to conduct a thorough search of the premises, during which the distribution depot, adjoining the saloon, was discovered. A second search warrant was obtained and the place entered.

Beer Cooling on Ice

In the distribution depot, occupying the first floor and basement, the agents found 100 gallons of 175-proof alcohol, 300 gallons of whisky aging in barrels, 16 half-pint bottles of whisky, 15 cases of beer and quantities of coloring matter, bottles and corks. No still was found and no one was in the place when the raiders entered, although a quantity of beer was found cooling in a tub of ice. A Government chemist, who accompanied the raiding party, declared the alcohol to be "moonshine," distilled through one of the numerous processes employed by bootleggers. The agents expressed the belief that there was a possible connection between the distribution depot and the large distillery discovered at Tenth and Wash streets last week. A number of cans found in the place, wrapped in paper sacks, are believed to have been used in transporting the alcohol to the depot, where it was "cut" and colored and allowed to age in the barrels found in the basement.

Third Successful Seizure

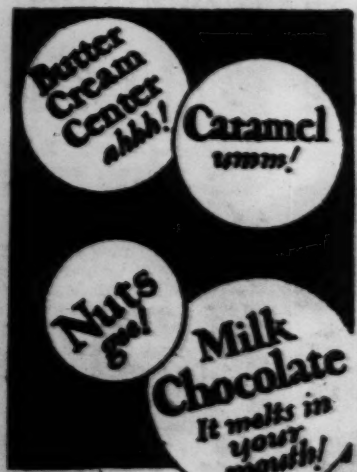

An improvised garage, close to the storehouse, is believed by agents to have been used to load automobiles and trucks with the liquor. The garage has a door opening on Spruce street and machines, could have been driven from the place after loading. Although the garage is immediately in the rear of his saloon, Dinaggio denied any knowledge of its use or of the storehouse next door. He told the agents he purchased the saloon about a month ago and had failed to discover the activities next door since taking charge. He was arrested and charged with possession of liquor in violation of the prohibition law.

WIDOW RENOUNCES WILL FOR AWARD ALLOWED UNDER LAW

Mrs. Emma Hoehner of Belleville to Take Half of Estate in Probate to $10,000.

Mrs. Emma Hoehner, widow of the late C. Andrew Hoehner, who died Oct. 22 last year, yesterday renounced the provisions of the will and elected to take a widow's award, which is one year's support, a homestead right, which is occupancy of the family dwelling on South Illinois street, Belleville, and one-half the real and personal estate. Under the provisions of her husband's will, Mrs. Hoehner was given $10,000, the household furniture and one year's residence in the home dwelling.

The personal estate is valued at $29,848.23. It will be up to an appraiser to determine what Mrs. Hoehner should have as a widow's award for one year's support after her husband's death. Under the husband's will two brothers and two sisters of the testator were to receive the bulk of the estate.

TETRAETHYL LEAD
DANGER EXPLAINED

Dr. C. L. Dana, Neurologist, Says Sale of Ethylized Gasoline Should Be Stopped.

Post-Dispatch Bureau,
20-23 Wyatt Building.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Emphasizing the extraordinary danger to human life from tetraethyl lead, Dr. Charles L. Dana, widely known neurologist of New York, told the American Neurological Association, in session here, that all things considered, commercial manufacture and sale of tetraethyl gasoline to the public should be prohibited.

Dr. Dana said in his speech yesterday that while no clinical evidence has come to his attention to show that garage or filling station employees or automobilists had suffered harmful effects from using and handling ethylized gasoline, the deadliness of tetraethyl had been clearly shown that its possibilities of danger were vast.

He brought out clearly that the poisoning resulting from tetraethyl should not be confused with ordinary lead poisoning, and that the two had only one symptom in common—the injury of red blood cells.

Dr. Dana told of having been called in consultation after five men were fatally stricken and upward of 30 others made seriously ill at the Standard Oil plant in Bayway, N. J., last October. These employees were engaged in the manufacture of ethyl gasoline. Dr. Dana explained, which consists of one part of tetraethyl lead to 1000 parts gasoline.

How Poison Enters System.
"Tetraethyl lead," he told his audience, "was discovered in 1854, but was not used to any extent until about two years ago. It consists of lead and ethyl chloride and a pure sodium. It is extremely poisonous and gets into the system via the respiratory organs and skin. Despite the extreme precautions exercised at the New Jersey plant, 49 to 50 cases of poison developed."

"No other poison causes quite this group of symptoms. It varies greatly in degree, the most serious cases rapidly developing violent mania similar to delirium tremens. When these symptoms appear the patient usually dies. In milder cases the patient feels general nausea, pains in the head, chest or abdominal region and the upper part of the stomach as in lead poisoning, however—and there is insomnia, thirst, dryness of the mouth, constipation and coarse tremors of the upper extremities."

"The trouble is a persistent one," he continued, "one cannot work or sleep sometimes for months. From my records it appears there have been 15 deaths from this poison, all in connection with the manufacture of ethyl gasoline."

Suggests Stopping Sale.
"The point of public interest at this time is whether the use of tetraethyl gasoline in proportion of one to 1000 is going to lead to chronic poisoning. I suppose on the whole it is better to stop the manufacture of tetraethyl gasoline and find, if possible, some gasoline combining the same efficiency, but less dangerous to the public."

One physician in the audience asked if those stricken with tetraethyl poisoning ever fully recovered, and said he had heard of one case in which apparently permanent impairment of the mind had resulted. Dr. Dana answered, he thought full recovery would come in time in mild cases, but that the illness persisted for months.

Senator Shipstead of Minnesota, who introduced a resolution in the Senate last March to inquire into the extent in which tetraethyl gasoline was being marketed and to determine its dangers, announced he would move in the next Congress for a Federal law that will permit control of situation in partially dangerous products that are marketed and do not fall under the restrictions of the pure food and drug act.

Boy Run Down by Train Dies.
SPARTA, Ill., May 7.—Earl Chalchaf, 15 years old, who was run over by a freight train on the Mobile & Ohio at Sparta, early Tuesday, died at 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday. The boy was on his way to visit his mother, Mrs. Leda Chalchaf, at Bowling Green, Mo.

TRY LEMON JUICE
TO WHITEN SKIN

The only harmless way to bleach the skin white is to mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any drugist will supply for a few cents. Shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quart of the most wonderful skin whitener, softener and beautifier. Massage this gently over the face, neck, arms and hands. It cannot irritate. Famous stage beauties use it to bring that clear, youthful skin and rosy-white complexion; also as a freckle, sunburn and tan bleach. You must mix this remarkable lotion yourself. It cannot be bought ready to use because it acts best immediately after it is prepared.

"GRASS GIRL" TAKEN INTO THE COUNTRY

Given Sun Bath Treatments
and Schooling at Farm on Meramec River.

San Antonio's "grass girl," brought here Feb. 25 for a delicate operation at Children's Hospital to remove an abscess caused by inhaling a grass top four years ago, has been taken into the country, in the midst of grass, trees and hills, to facilitate her recovery.

She is 11-year-old Jimmie English, whose plight, due to childish play with grasshoppers in her mouth, was described in the Post-Dispatch when she was brought here. Last Saturday she was transferred to Ridge Farm, the Meramec River branch of the hospital, near Valley Park.

The operation was performed on March 16, an incision being made in the child's left side to reach the lung and drain the abscess. Several weeks later she was permitted to return from the private room in which she was placed for quiet to the ward in which she had been the chum of two dozen other boys and girls before the operation.

Given Sun Baths.
Now it is a question of the healing effect of time and nature, and of protection of Jimmie from infection. Herotherapy, healing by the sun's rays, is being used for her, as for the other little patients at Ridge Farm. There the children, once they become used to it, can lie on beds, with only the scantiest of clothing and no covers, on a secluded, open porch, while the sun beats down and the wind blows. Jimmie "bakes" thus for two hours daily, only partially exposed.

The child is quite able to walk around and engage in ordinary pursuits, but cannot run or otherwise exert herself. She is cheerful and smiling nevertheless. She is beginning to catch up with the schooling she has been forced to miss, for Ridge Farm has its own sunny schoolroom, high on the river bluff. Jimmie had been in school only a few months when the grasshopper changed the course of her life. Thereafter she was in and out of a San Antonio hospital, but could not muster strength for school when she was out. When she was in nurses found it to be to her to some extent with the three Rs.

Keeps Newspaper Clippings

Jimmie has 40 or 50 newspaper clippings about herself stored away in a box, but she doesn't exactly consider this a treasure chest. Her face looks to be a solemn, freckle-covered mask, but is really provoked into a cheerful grin. "It is framed by straight, big, bobbed hair. She weighs about 60 pounds, a little less than when she came here and somewhat below normal, but she has an excellent appetite, which Ridge Farm is striving to keep up with."

But that milk! Now, there's something Jimmie will have a word or two to say on. "I used to like milk sometimes," she remarked, "but out here we have to drink two cups at every meal." Too much of a good thing, she indicated.

"I was a little scared about coming to St. Louis," she said, "but I wasn't scared when it was time to operate."

That was her cue to volunteer details of the operation, which was performed here that she might have the best surgical skill, but she had to be asked.

"They put a little rubber cap on my face for the gas, but I wouldn't let them cover my eyes," she said. "It didn't hurt much afterwards."

Jimmie likes Ridge Farm and that's about all there is to that. "One of the other girls and I look after all the girls' toothbrushes," she said. "I go to school in the morning, 'bake' two hours, go to school again and play till 7 o'clock, when we go to bed."

THOUSANDS WATCH
DESCENT OF DIANA

Statue, Atop Madison Square
Garden's Tower 35 Years, Is Removed.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch,
NEW YORK, May 7.—Slowly
and majestically, proudly and disdainfully—as befits a goddess—Diana of the Garden descended among mortals yesterday.

A bit reluctantly, too, it seemed to the thousands who watched—the graceful goddess with the wistful face relinquished the lofty place where she had posed with bent bow and ready arrow—for nearly 35 years—as though she knew that her descent meant that one of the world's famous structures was in the hands of the wreckers at last and that in 60 days Madison Square Garden would be but a memory.

Beneath her, in the great arena,
where echoes of the roars of frenzied fight fans; of "Twenty-four for Underwood;" of the blare of circus bands; of the chug of primitive automobile motors and the neighing of prancing horses seemed to fill among the shadows, gangs of workmen ripped out seats and tore down rails.

Diana's descent from the tip of the tower to the roof, whence the statue will be lowered today and taken to a warehouse to await installation in its old place when the campaign is rebuilt on the campus of New York University, as called for by present plans, occupied just an hour.

It began at 3 o'clock. From the roof below the operation was watched by a hundred or so invited guests of Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York Life Insurance Co., new owners of the site, including George B. Cortelyou, Cass Gilbert, Chancellor Elmer
Ellsworth Brown and Prof. Fleke
Kimball of New York University.

In Madison Square and all its adjacent streets and from the roofs
and windows of neighboring buildings, other thousands watched as the dainty figure, released by workmen's blow torches from its pedestal, swung out on its first journey in more than three decades.

$50,000 FOR LOSS OF ARM

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 7.—A jury
before Supreme Court Justice Morschauer at White Plains yesterday
awarded $50,000 to Alexandre Karelly of New Rochelle, who alleged he had lost the use of his left arm through vaccination enforced upon him by physicians of the Cunard line before he was permitted to sail from Cherbourg in 1920.

Karelly, formerly an aviator in the French Army, said he protested
he already had been vaccinated
three times in the army and became violently ill each time.

If you are one of the many who try to make the most of your hair, remember that it is not advisable to wash the hair
with any cleanser made for all purposes, but always use some good shampoo. You can enjoy the very best by getting some Canthrox from your druggist, dissolve a teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. This makes a full cup of shampoo liquid, enough so it is easy to apply it to all the hair instead of just the top of the head.
Dandruff, excess oil, and dirt are dissolved and entirely disappear. Your hair will be so fluffy that it will look much heavier than it is. Its luster and softness will also delight you, while the stimulated scalp gains the health which insures hair

Have You Piles?

Then You Have Something to Learn

Thousands who have piles have not learned that quick and permanent relief can only be accomplished by internal medicine. Neither cutting nor any amount of treatment with ointment and suppositories will remove the cause.

Bad circulation causes piles. There is a complete stagnation of blood in the lower bowel and a weakening of the parts. Dr. J. S. Leinhardt was first to find the remedy. His prescription, HEM-RHOID, is now sold by all druggists. Dr. Leinhardt tried it in 1000 cases with the marvelous record of success in 98 per cent and then decided it should be sold under a right money-back guarantee.

Don't waste any more time with outside applications. Get a package of HEM-RHOID from Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. today. It has given safe and lasting relief to thousands and should do the same for you—it seldom fails.

HIGH BLOOD PRESSURE

Physician's Discovery Safely Reduces It to Normal and Dizzy Spells Disappear.

Thousands who have dizzy spells, sleeplessness, nervousness, shortness of breath, pains in the head and impaired energy have been told by physicians or insurance examiners that they have high blood pressure. The serious results are well enough known to check it at once. High blood pressure caused by overtaxing the heart often brings on Bright's Disease, apoplexy and sudden death.

Norma reduces high blood pressure to normal. Often do it in 10 days. Many have been cured. It is a doctor's prescription that will do it. It is also much used by women at the changing time of life who usually have blood pressure above normal. It is sold by all good dealers, such as Enderle Drug Co., Judge & Dolph Drug Stores, Kieffer Drug Co., Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., R. Nugent, Home Dr. Co.

How New Discovery Removes Hair Roots Safely—Forever

Many beauty and scientific authorities now recognize that smoothly shaven hair on face, arms and legs positively can be got rid of permanently by removing the hair roots—and repeating the process if necessary. Thousands of women are using Karma, a new soothing cream, because it is so effective. It is sold as easily as cold cream and because it fits out hair roots leaving the skin smooth and healthy. No more odor. No growing back of hair stronger than ever. Karma is sold on a postpaid plan that it will give you a refund if you are not satisfied. See for yourself how wonderful it is. Sold by all good dealers, such as Enderle Drug Co., Judge & Dolph Drug Stores, Kieffer Drug Co., Wolff-Wilson Drug Co., R. Nugent, Home Dr. Co.

Girl Gained 7 Pounds Nine Years an Invalid

That's just what McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets did for the Babcock Girl—and is doing as much for tens of thousands of thin, underweight, weak and discouraged people all over America.

These sugar coated, pleasant to take tablets should be given to children instead of the vile stomach upsetting oil itself—they surely do help the frail, delicate little ones, and 60 tablets cost but 60 cents at Wolff-Wilson, Judge & Dolph Drug Stores, Enderle Drug Co. and Johnson Bros. Drug Co., or any real drug-gist anywhere in America.

Read this letter if you have a child that needs to gain health and strength.

"My little girl was stricken with infantile paralysis when she was 3 months old and was an invalid for 9 years—when I saw an ad in the paper that McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets would build up wasted tissue. I bought a box and she gained very slowly at first and after taking eight boxes, she gained seven pounds. Thanks to McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets, after testing almost everything else on the market. She is on the road to recovery and goes to school every day." Mrs. L. Babcock, Appleton, Wis.

Imitations of McCoy's may be offered but be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine and if after three days treatment you are not delighted with results—why get your money back.

In all the sneezing, runny eyes and in 24 hours or your money back. Get Rinex today and just TRY it. No narcotics or other harmful drugs—no bad after-effects. All good druggists.

Sample 24-hour Treatment FREE from your druggist or mailed by the Clinical Lab. Co., Cleveland, O., on receipt of 10c to cover packing, etc. But you take no risk in getting the regular $1.00 one on guarantee from any druggist—money back if not relieved in 24 hours.

Foot Trouble—No More

Amazing relief for you. Burning, itching, tender, swollen, puffed, agonizing, calloused, torturing feet. Necessary. Science has mastered foot trouble in California. Cal-o-cide. Wear shoes you like, don't be a cripple. One application of Cal-o-cide treatment and you are a new person. Cures and calms down like magic. At your nearest shoe store. Each package contains valuable line booklet on new foot medicine. MEDICINE CO. BOSTON, ONE CENT. FOOT REMEDY

LARGE HOSPITAL TO BE ERECTED AT 'OAK MANOR'

Mansion and Garage on Property Now Being Converted Into Adjunct of Bethesda Home.

EXPENDITURE OF $400,000 PLANNED

The 5-Acre Tract in County Was Willed to Charity by the Late Mrs. Elizabeth Dilworth.

Shorn of its fine furnishings and stripped of even its light fixtures, "Oak Manor," the home of the late Mrs. Elizabeth Dilworth, on Big Bend road, west of Webster Groves, is being transformed into an agency of mercy and beneficence, as its former owner planned when she left it to Bethesda corporation.

And when the program contemplated is completed, a new eight or ten-story brick hospital building will tower above the 26-room residence from the site now occupied by a sunken garden, just east of the present building. A large one-story brick garage will be enlarged to two stories for use as a children's ward, and various other buildings of "Oak Manor" will be adapted to use as supplements to a modern hospital.

Will Cost About $400,000. The program, as outlined, will entail the expenditure of approximately $400,000, and the time of its completion will depend upon the success of efforts now being made to liquidate assets left to the corporation by numerous legacies. Dr. Edward W. Saunders, president, said today. If this money is available, work on the new hospital will begin this summer.

The proposed building will have a capacity of about 150 patients, and will be fully equipped for emergency treatment. Particular attention will be given to obstetrics and the care of babies and convalescents.

"While the charity feature always is emphasized by Bethesda, St. Louis County will find in our new hospital every facility which St. Louis finds in the city hospital," Dr. Saunders said. "It will be used as a supplement and to enlarge the work which we have been doing in St. Louis for the past 24 years and it will provide St. Louis County with a modern hospital, fully equipped."

Remodeling in Progress. The work of remodeling "Oak Manor" to meet the needs of a hospital until the proposed building is erected, already is in progress, and it will be completed in time for use as a haven from the summer heat for convalescent patients and babies from Bethesda Home at 3649 Vista avenue. Its capacity will be about 20.

Provisions for furnishing a room as a memorial to themselves have been made by six individuals. The construction of an operating room on the third floor over the sun parlor will begin soon, elevators and fire escapes will be installed, and a connection made with the Kirkwood sewer system.

Arrangements for the purchase of five thoroughbred Tourgenburg goats, noted for the quality and quality of their milk, have been made. These animals will form the nucleus of a herd which will supply milk to the hospital and to the Foundling Home. A large part of the 25 acres constituting the grounds of "Oak Manor" has been put into cultivation and 250 fruit trees have been planted.

COOLIDGE PHONO-FILM INQUIRY

De Forest Makes Statement of Explanation.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Dr. Lee De Forest, president of the De Forest Phono-Film Corporation, today said that investigations by the Department of Justice into the use of a phono-film of President Coolidge for exploitation of phono-film stock would produce nothing to put the company in a bad light.

The film in question, he avowed, was one shown throughout the country last year for campaign purposes and not the one made for a dinner of newspaper editors at the Friars' Club on April 21.

"Everything in the matter of obtaining the President as a subject for the phono-film was conducted openly," he asserted. "President Coolidge is only one of a number of prominent persons who have appeared on the phono-film screen."

TO MODIFY LAW ON HUSBANDS

By the Associated Press. LONDON, May 7.—In the House of Lords yesterday the Lord Chancellor announced it was the Government's intention to introduce legislation to modify the law which makes a husband liable for his wife's acts under which a civil action can be brought against the husband. The Lord Chancellor said the existing law was based on the doctrine that husband and wife are one person and that the entire reason for this doctrine had now disappeared with the law securing to a wife her own property.

BODIES OF EIGHT KILLED IN EXPLOSION ARE IDENTIFIED

Detectives Hold to Theory That Blast in Pittsburgh Suburb Was Due to Bomb.

By the Associated Press.
PITTSBURGH, Pa., May 7.—At the county morgue Albert J. Jeremias identified the bodies of eight persons who were killed in an explosion in Swissvale, a suburb early yesterday. All the victims of the blast were his relatives.

The dead are: Clement Jeremias
and wife, Carl Kegler and wife,
Carl Baldus and wife, Mrs. Marie
Kothe and Richard Baldus, aged 7.
County detectives assigned to the investigation hold to their first theory that the blast was caused by a bomb. They are investigating reports that the explosion may have resulted from a "blackhand"
plot, but they said there were no tangible clues to fix the responsibility.

Bigamist Is Sentenced.

By the Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Morris Seldow, 29 years old, convicted of bigamy two weeks ago, yesterday
was sentenced to an indeterminate term in the penitentiary. The maximum penalty is 3 years. Judge Collins, pronouncing sentence, denounced Seldow for leaving his first wife and marrying Mary Woodson, 17-year-old daughter of a Washington (D. C.) dressmaker, in 1924. Seldow was working as a motorman when he married the Woodson girl. He lived secretly with her in Brooklyn several months before Mrs. Woodson found her daughter.

Enter this $1000 "Write-a-Lifebuoy-Ad" Contest

1st prize $250 • 2nd prize $100 • 3rd prize $50 • 60 prizes of $10 each

MEN!

Your big reason for liking Lifebuoy Health Soap may win $10, $50, $100 or $250 and be the best Lifebuoy
advertisement ever written. Write your own feelings about Lifebuoy or why you would like to try it—your personal knowledge of Lifebuoy gained by experience,
your conviction as to why Lifebuoy is the one toilet soap above all others, regardless of price, which you prefer to use.

What is there about Lifebuoy that you could say to a neighbor that would make him or her buy Lifebuoy?
Write that down—it will be a good advertisement. To test its value before you send it in, try it on some neighbors

WOMEN!

BOYS!

GIRLS!

—say to them what you have written down. If what you say results in new users of Lifebuoy, you will know you have written an A-1, result-producing advertisement—
one which should stand a good chance of winning a prize.

Here are five miniature Lifebuoy advertisements. To read them may help you. Don't imitate them. Write your idea of Lifebuoy in your style. Of two equally interesting, convincing advertisements, the briefer will stand a better chance of winning. You needn't draw a picture. The prizes will be awarded on the merit of the idea and the wording, or "copy," as the advertising men
call it. Read carefully the conditions printed below.

Wonderful
creamy lather!

"This is my kind of soap," is the comment of the new user of Lifebuoy
Health Soap.
"It's the lather!" they say—the different, the generous, the creamy, dirt searching, skin soothing, pore purifying lather
that is only Lifebuoy's.

ANTISEPTIC...
protects health

The first law of health is cleanliness.

Sensible mothers—the Health
Doctors of their families—provide the sensible, every-day
health protection that Lifebuoy
gives. They know that Lifebuoy gently removes germs that hands pick up from the many things they touch.

Its mild, soothing, antiseptic
lather safeguards health.

Health-Beauty

Bright-eyed, sturdy youngsters, a beautiful mother, younger than her years—an alert successful dad—that's the typical Lifebuoy family—healthy and happy.
Lifebuoy Health Soap is so mild and pure,
its constant use is highly beneficial to the most sensitive skin.

For beautiful hair

Big, creamy, stimulating suds! Quick, easy rinsing! Clean, wholesome odor, quickly vanishing. Women themselves discovered Lifebuoy for shampooing.
They say it makes the hair silky,
fluffy, lustrous and keeps the scalp glowing with health. Try Lifebuoy yourself—for a perfect shampoo.

MEN!

there's kick in it

Absolute, definite, satisfying cleanliness that makes skin and body tingle and glow with health, as they have never tingled and glowed before. That's the "kick" you will get from your first big orange-red cake of Lifebuoy.

Conditions of the Contest

Write your original Lifebuoy advertisement on plain paper, write your name and address and mail to "$1000 Contest," Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass. Enter
as many advertisements as you wish to.
The judges—a committee of advertising
men of national reputation, not connected with Lever Bros. Co.—will select the thirty-three best advertisements, and checks for the prizes will be mailed to winners not later than August 1st, 1925. No one connected directly or indirectly with Lever Bros. Co. is eligible to enter this contest.
1st prize $250—2nd prize $100—3rd prize

$50—sixty prizes of $10 each. In the case of ties the full amount of the prize will be given to each tying contestant. Contest closes June 1, 1925.
This contest is open both to users and non-users of Lifebuoy. It is not required that you buy Lifebuoy as a condition of entering. If you have not used Lifebuoy,
we will send you a free sample.
Above your signature write this sentence: "In the event that I win a prize, you have my permission to print my winning Lifebuoy advertisement with my name signed as the author."

MRS. SHEPHERD IS RELEASED
ON HER OWN RECOGNIZANCE

Named as Accessory of Her Husband in Murder Case, She Urges Him to Remain Firm.

By the Associated Press.
CHICAGO, May 7.—Mrs. Julie Shepherd, named as an accessory of her husband, William D. Shepherd, in the alleged slaying of their ward, William Nelson McClintock, orphan millionaire, is at liberty on her own recognizance after surrendering yesterday afternoon.

Her release pending grand jury action, on $10,000 bonds was promised tomorrow morning by Judge Hopkins, before whom she appeared.
Until then he stayed service of the Coroner's order from which she fled Tuesday night after the Coroner's jury had recommended that she be held as an accessory in the death of young McClintock last fall and of his mother, 16 years ago.

No opposition to her release on her word or on bond was raised by State's Attorney Crowe, who strenuously resisted efforts to release
Shepherd, now in jail, pending trial
May 15. "There is no evidence that I have as State's Attorney that can cause me to oppose bail in this case," the prosecutor said.

For the first time since his arrest
several weeks ago, Shepherd was taken from his cell to converse with his wife after arrangements
for her release had been made.
They conversed for 15 minutes,
urging each other to remain firm
and trust in divine aid. They smiled
as they posed for camera men.

Buchu, the Bladder Physic.
C. N. Shuman, Republic, Ohio, says:
"Before taking Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) each night's rest would be disturbed 7 or 8 times. This condition no longer prevails. You may use my name if it would benefit anyone with bladder trouble."

Be careful not to take drugs that check the action of the bladder. You may have to continue its use. Lithiated Buchu (Keller Formula) increases the action during the day. It cleanses the bladder as soon as the bowels driving out foreign matter, neutralizing excess acids, thereby relieving the irritation which causes disturbed nights. These tablets cost 2c each at all drug stores or Keller

SUES POLICEMAN FOR $6000 FOR RAID WITHOUT WARRANT

Suit for $6000 damages was filed yesterday in Circuit Court against

George Brennan, a policeman, 73 George Street, proprietor of a pool and billiard room at 4514 Manchester avenue, who alleges Brennan raided the place on April 26 without justification or search warrant, intimidated the patrons and arrested him on a false charge of gambling, which was dismissed in court.

89 Years Old Today

JOSEPH G. CANNON.

GROWING OLD, 'UNCLE JOE' ADMITS AT 89

Former Speaker of House Says He, However, Denied It for a Long Time.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. DANVILLE, Ill., May 7.—"Just loafing around in the cloakroom of life awaiting to be summoned to the floor by the Great Speaker," is the way "Uncle Joe" Cannon describes his idleness since he dropped out of Congress a little more than two years ago. Today he has a birthday and he is just observing—not celebrating—it.

"Uncle Joe" is 89 years old and he is paying as little attention to it as a man would who watches the messenger boys arrive with telegrams, others with letters from local friends and some with flowers. They came in streams today to the fine old house at 418 North Vermilion street, which has been his home for 45 years—or ever since he moved here from Tuscola during his second term in Congress.

Delegations of friends also called to congratulate him and, several clubs, one of which is to have him as a guest to meet one of the around-the-world army flyers, Jack Harding, at luncheon, sent greetings. With all of these things happening, it is hard for a fellow to avoid celebrating.

Home Folks Decree Quiet.

But it's orders from the home folks. They do not want him to overtax his strength. He is still fairly strong and has an appetite like a hired man and nothing in the way of food is denied him. Still they want to have him at home as long as they can—they want him to live as long as Chauncey Depew, who is 91, or longer. The nation had him so many years and they were denied him, and now that he is out of politics and just a plain citizen they want him to live for years and enjoy some of the joys of home life.

The former Speaker arose at 7 a. m. today and was out on the front porch gathering up the morning newspapers.

After breakfast he usually reads until 9:30 or 9:35 and then dresses and walks down to the corner drug store and gets a handful of black cigars. Sometimes he goes on downtown and visits the bank and often he crosses Vermilion street from the drug store and enters the Elks Club, where he talks. On pleasant days he walks back home and after smoking a few cigars he orders his big touring car out and takes a seat alongside the chauffeur. "Uncle Joe," except on occasions of state, is always to be found right up in front.

"Growing Old Artistically." "They say that one grows old gracefully, but as for me I cannot say that I was ever graceful," he said. "I am an artist and maybe I am growing old artistically. At any rate I am ready to admit it. I did deny it for a long time—that I am really and truly growing old. The folks want me to beat Chauncey Depew's record and I reckon I'll have to do it. I hate to disappoint my own folks."

"This would be a good day to send out a denial that I have again taken up smoking—I never quit. It was this way that the story got out, two years ago that I had sworn off. I admit that I did some swearing—but not off."

"It was this way: When I quit Congress two years ago and came home to Danville, Danville arranged to give me a big blow-off. The town was quite full. There were a lot of newspaper men from all the big papers here. There were also some newspaper men without jobs—free lances of journalism. I believe you call them. One of these smoked the most atrocious cigars. It has ever been my misfortune to accept.

"He was early on the scene and was loaded with cigars. He would greet me morning, noon and night with 'Howdy do, have a cigar.' I found that even my stomach rebelled against such atrocious ropes. Finally I refused him."

$200 Taken From Subpostoffice. A box containing $200 in post-office funds, was stolen yesterday from the drug store of Richard A. Grosse, 4300 Hartford street, which is also a subpostoffice. Paul Wright a clerk at the store, told him he believed the box was stolen last night by a youth who had entered the store while a customer was in the store. Wright about $200 which was for sale.

CITY ELECTION COST

DEMOCRATS $49,168

Balance of $1005 in Fund
Contributed by 894 Individuals.

A total of $48,168.33 was spent in the recent primary and city election in the interests of the Democratic ticket, including William L. Igoe, mayoralty candidate, according to a report filed with the Recorder of Deeds by the Igoe-for-Mayor Committee, yesterday.

Subscriptions of 894 contributors amounted to $48,173.87, leaving a balance of $1005.64 in the fund. This money will probably be used in the election contest instituted by Igoe, it was said.

The principal expenditures were: For precinct workers, $24,320; printing, $9041; advertising and publicity, $4200; salaries, $2275, and postage $3979.

Among the contributors, with the amounts each gave are: Igoe, $500; former Gov. Frederick Gardner, $500; August A. Busch, $500; Edward F. Goltz, $500; W. J. Whalen, $500; Philip P. Scanlan, $500; Arthur J. Donnelly, $500; Festus Wade, $250; Isaac H. Lionberger, $250; Edward B. Meisner, $250; Murray Carleton, $250; Sam W. Fordyce Jr., $250; Con P. Curran, $200; Samuel Rosenfeld, $200; Daniel G. Taylor, $100; David R. Francis, $100; John G. Lonsdale, $100; John P. Queeny, $100; L. Rassieur, $100, and Sam B. Jeffries, $100.

There were some contributions from Democrats of Missouri outside of St. Louis, indicating that they thought election of a Democratic Mayor in St. Louis would help the party in the State. Among these were: William T. Kemper of Kansas City, Democratic National Committeeman for Missouri, $250; Joseph B. Shannon, leader of one Kansas City faction, $100; D. J. Landers of Springfield, $100, and Stephen D. Hunter, Cape Girardeau, $50.

'CORPSE' HELD ON CHARGE OF FLEEING UNDERTAKER OF $25

New Yorker, Who Ordered Coffin and Flowers for "Brother," Held in $500 Bail.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEW YORK, May 7.—A stranger went to Undertaker Connor in the Bronx, March 22 last. "He said," declared Connor to Magistrate Douras yesterday, "that he was John McCarthy, that his poor brother, Leonard, had been hit by an automobile and had died at Bellevue, and that he'd like to pick out the best casket the house afforded."

"He showed me an insurance policy and he said it was on Leonard, and that he had no money until he could collect on the policy. He asked me for $25 to get some flowers for the brother and I gave it to him."

That night an elaborate casket designed for Leonard was made ready. It was of silver gray, plush-lined, and bore upon the plate the words, "Leonard McCarthy, died March 22, 1925." There were candles and potted palms, and a burial plot had been negotiated for in St. Raymond's Cemetery.

But when the florist's wagon drew up at the deceased's residence, in the Bronx, a wondering Mrs. McCarthy came to the door.

"What's the flowers for?" said she. "Why, for your husband, who died yesterday morning," said the driver.

"That's funny," said Mrs. McCarthy; "if he died yesterday morning it must have been his ghost that was here last night. I think you're crazy."

ARBITRATION AND ARMAMENTS HEAD AGENDA OF LEAGUE

Assembly Called for Sept. 7, to Consider Also Securities and 19 Other Items.

By the Associated Press.
GENEVA, May 7.—Simultaneously with the convocation of the next League Assembly, Sept. 7, the league has issued a provisional agenda for the meeting, which will be presided over probably by the French representative who presides over the September session of the council.

First place is given to the question of arbitration, securities, and the reduction of armaments, which again comes up for discussion because of Great Britain's rejection of the Geneva peace protocol. The protocol itself will be debated and some disposition made of it, for only the League Assembly can take definite action.

The agenda includes 22 items, among them the financial reconstruction of Austria and Hungary, the settling of Greek refugees on Greek soil, the opium situation, the education of the youth of all countries in the ideals of the world peace, and instruction in universities and schools regarding the aims of the league.

An extensive report will be submitted concerning the league's activities in the domain of public health, which have seen great development in the past year. Intellectual co-operation, in connection with which France recently offered to found an institute in Paris, and a report on the problem of communication and transit also will be considered.

MILLER—World Standard for Tire Quality

"How do they compare with Millers?"

How often you hear this question when tire merits are discussed! For Millers are widely recognized for their high performance records.

The geared-to-the-road Tire is a Miller development. So is the uniflex cord principle of construction which gives Balloon Tires the flexibility they need for comfort; yet actually makes them longer-lived than the stiff, bulky Tires of the past. The Miller uniflex-built Tire flexes evenly from top to bottom.

Start saving on Tires and Tubes with Millers. There's a geared-to-the-road dealer near you. He will take a sincere interest in your needs and give you the utmost for your tire dollar. Look for the Miller sign.

FISKE SAYS HIS 'UNLAWFUL ACTS' WON THE WAR

Admiral Declares Army and Navy Were Made Ready "In Spite of" President Wilson.

WENT BEFORE HOUSE COMMITTEE SECRETLY

Assails Daniels as "Blundering Interferer" Who Finally Claimed Fiske's Ideas as His Own.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
NEWARK, N. J., May 7.—Lack of proper clothing and shelter was responsible for the deaths of thousands of soldiers in the camps of this country during the winter of 1917-18, Rear Admiral Bradley A. Fiske (retired) said in an address before the New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce here.

Admiral Fiske also asserted in his address yesterday that only the commission of unlawful acts by himself, for which he might have been court-martialed, and because of which he actually was forced to resign his position in apparent disgrace, saved the United States from defeat at the hands of Germany. He said the war, called by Lloyd George "a race between Hindenburg and Wilson," was won by a hair by Wilson because "a few army and navy officers" got the army and navy ready "in spite of" the President.

Josephus Daniels, former Secretary of the Navy, was clayed by Admiral Fiske as a pacifist and a blundering interferer, who fought Fiske's ideas early in the war and then claimed them as his own when they proved the salvation of the navy.

Says He Was Vindicated.
"I was discredited officially and forced to resign my position," Fiske declared, "but everything I told Mr. Daniels would happen did happen and in a more extreme degree than I had predicted. I was so thoroughly vindicated (by the navy, at least) that I was elected at 12 annual meetings in succession as president of the United States Naval Institute; for a longer period than any other president has ever held."

Admiral Fiske prefaced his remarks by saying he realized he laid himself open to charge of being conceited and egotistical in claiming that his stand for preparedness swung the balance for the allies, but he said his purpose was to show the aptness of the title of the address, "The Fragile Basis of Our National Security." Fiske was aid for operations of the navy when the Wilson administration came into power, but resigned early in 1913.

Secretary Daniels, he said, "like many men who had never been charged with with large responsibilities," tried to attend to all details of the Navy Department himself instead of through the four naval aids provided by his predecessor. He got rid of two of these aids, Admiral Fiske said, and so interfered with the others "that when the war broke out he had 'made our navy wholly unmanageable for the purpose of war.'"

Before Committee in Secret.
Daniels, though urged continually to adopt an administrative plan that would show at all times the preparedness of all bureaus of the navy, failed to do so and "seemed to be thrown into an antagonistic frame of mind at every mention of the word 'war,'" the Admiral continued.

Fiske secretly had himself called before the House Naval Committee by Representative Hobson, he said, and successfully refuted the Secretary's "proof of the preparedness of the navy" in his report of December, 1914.

Through the influence of Hobson, he said, his title of aid for operations was changed to chief of naval operations, and he was given more power. "This he asserted, resulted in the reversal of Daniels' and President Wilson's policies toward preparedness and made possible the transporting of an army to France 'in the nick of time.'"

Gloria Swanson Adopts Boy
Actress Makes Ward of Children's Society Her Legal Son.
By the Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, May 7.—Little Joe Smith, who, shortly after his birth in Oakland, two and a half years ago, was made a ward of the Children's Home Society in that city, appeared in Superior Court here yesterday and was formally adopted by Gloria Swanson, who had been providing for the child since early in 1921. Under formal adoption proceedings he was given the name of Joseph Swanson and the same legal status as his foster sister Gloria II, including the right of inheritance.

Joe's arrival at the courthouse was not without formality, and a certain amount of company. First there was the chauffeur who drove the car, then there was the footman who opened the door and assisted the child to the sidewalk, and he was accompanied in the courtroom by a valet.

The Dresses pictured are an example of the tremendous values. Many others at $5.00.

The HOOVER

It BEATS... as it Sweeps as it Cleans

A Splendid Gift for Mother

Cash Payment of $2

Places It in Your Home, Balance Payable Monthly

Do you know how splendidly the Hoover contributes to home beauty and brings leisure hours to those who "keep house"? In the 1,500,000 homes where it is used, rugs, draperies and upholstery retain their rich colorings and their dirt-free fabric actually wears longer. The Hoover does more than most suction cleaners—it cleans by suction, and at the same time it beats and sweeps. The remarkable terms of our special offer are placing these appliances in many more homes. You, too, should profit by them.

Stubborn clinging surface litter, loose dirt and imbedded dust are thoroughly and easily removed with the Hoover.

A set of attachments in which there is one all-purpose tool, bring new conveniences—one tool that serves almost all needs.

The Hoover attachments snap together and lock tight when you use them. Only pressure of a spring lock will release them.

ETHICS BY PRESS
URGED BY HAWES

Journalists Should Create Responsible Body With Penalties for Infractions.

WOULD HAVE POWER TO EXPEL UNWORTHY

Government Control of Press Has Always Failed, Congressman Tells Missouri Journalism School.

By the Post-Dispatch, COLUMBIA, Mo., May 7.—The question of journalism should have a stated code of ethics, and should have means of punishing infractions of that code, Congressman Harry B. Hawes of St. Louis said today in an address at the School of Journalism of the University of Missouri. His subject was "Freedom of the Press."

"The power of the press is greater than that of any of the other institutions," Representative Hawes said. "When this power is questioned or its liberty endangered, it is usually because some member has done a thing against which public opinion has revolted."

"Journalism, therefore, should be a profession in some definite sense. It is in fact, and the honorable men and women who enter it should be protected against those who lower its standard."

"To make journalism a profession would not necessarily require a diploma or a certificate, but it should be created somewhere a body in which members would carry ostensible responsibility, to fail to join which would require explanation, and from which would have the relative effect as the disbarment of a lawyer or the disqualification of a doctor."

"Regulation Has Failed." Journalism undoubtedly has its ethics, but its means of enforcing discipline are not effective, the speaker discussed proposed changes of Government regulation and control of newspapers, and said that such plans had failed, however tried, and that newspapers would continue to be private enterprises, subject to public approval or disapproval, with constant support or loss of support. Label and slander were discussed, a conclusion reached being that printed word, when false and malicious, is much more harmful than the written word. Also, he said, the written and printed word requires more deliberation than the spoken word, and therefore carries heavier responsibility.

Regulation papers, he said, do not complain of postal regulations against the publication of fraudulent advertising, lottery advertising and obscene matter. The attempt to limit the press, as to publication of political matter objectionable to ruling classes, was discussed from the historical viewpoint.

Protecting the Constitution. The first amendment to the Federal Constitution, Congressman Hawes said, that the freedom of the press, one of five provisions of the amendment, was interdependent with the other four, which were freedom of religion, freedom of speech, freedom of assembly and freedom of petition.

"Primitive society," the speaker said, "recognized three ways in which an injured person might obtain redress: First, by self-help; second, by the help of their gods; and third, by the help of the state or political organization."

"But with Germany, the able to give redress. He was made up of Cecil, who elaborated the Mutual Assistance movement, its successment, from treaty of the War Council."

The success or failure of a newspaper conduct; and in this, more thanand others by Prof. Shotwell and Gen. Bliss, both formerly members of the American Commission to Negotiate Peace. But, like Cecil, McDonald soon went out of office. His successor, Chamberlain,
the Conservative Foreign Minister,
only a month or two ago repudiated
his predecessor's work. Thus, both the treaty of Mutual Assistance and the protocol have been at least temporarily discor-
ded. The working out of a substitute for these, satisfactory to both Britain and France, will be the central task of the next Assembly of the League of Nations which meets in Geneva September this year."For American policy two questions of vast importance emerge
in sharp relief from all these European attempts to outlaw war.
These are, what will be the attitude of our Government toward:
1. Compulsory arbitration. 2. The economic boycott and other forms of sanctions to be used against an aggressor state."Will the United States join in a proposal for the reference of all international disputes to judicial settlement? This question is one of compulsory jurisdiction. European opinion now recognizes as the essential first step towards the outlawry of war. Will the United States take it? In the present state of our public opinion the answer must be 'no.' The United States, during the nineteenth century the leader in the movement for the substitution of arbitration for war,
is today holding back this essential development. Surely the advocacy of Mr. Wilson is one into which the church can and should throw the full weight of its vast influence."Attitude as to Sanctions.
The attitude of the United States towards the other problem,
that of sanctions against an outlaw
state, is even more immediately important. The United States has not yet taken any steps to save itself from new wars. In all probability, any substitute for the protocol will, like it, attempt to restrain states from going to war by the threat of outlawry. What exact form the sanctions shall take has not yet been agreed upon. But all students of the question are certain that, unless the United States
agrees formally, or at least tacitly,
not to aid and abet the outlaw,
all efforts at outlawry will fail.In other words, the problem for the United States is to reduce itself
to this: Will the United States agree to not to block Europe's road to peace. Put in this form, only one answer seems possible. It need not involve partisan questions, relating to the league, surely the church, once it understands the issue, will declare in ringing tones. "Our Government must co-operate with the rest of the world to end the curse of war."Ambassador Houghton's address
last Monday before the Pilgrims Society was excellent advice to Europe. Obviously, American co-operation should be contingent upon Europe's willingness to avoid threatening or militaristic policies,
to set its house in order and to live at peace with its neighbors. But more and more Europe has been doing just these things. In proportion as it continues to do so our Government should spare no effort to show our vast power and influence in the scales in support of those who under very adverse circumstances are striving to make the forces of European reconstruction and peace triumph over those of disorganization and revenge.Only thus can we as a people be worthy of our unique heritage."
Church Ritual Discussed.
At this morning's meeting of the Congress, at Sheldon Memorial,
the subject of "Proposed Changes in the Office" was discussed by Bishop-Conductor C. L. Slattery of the diocese of Massachusetts, general chairman of the Congress, and the Rev. Dr. Seldon P. Delany of the Church of St. Mary the Virgin,
New York. The changes discussed relate to the church's ritual. This was followed by a discussion of
"Extra-Rubrical and Non-Rubrical Practices," by the Rev. Dr. J. H.
Randolph Ray, rector of the Church of the Transfiguration (Little Church Around the Corner), New York, and the Rev. Floyd W. Tomkins, rector of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia.Tonight, in Sheldon Memorial,
the subject of "Miracles" will be discussed by the Rev. Dr. Frederick C. Grant, dean of the Divinity School of Kenyon College, Gambler, O., and the Rev. John M.
Grotton, rector of Grace Church,
New Bedford, Mass. The meetings will continue through tomorrow afternoon.In all else, lies the safety for its character of these will bring success or failure.

of the Psychiatric Clinic, the Legal Aid Bureau and the Municipal Lodging House from the city's annual budget, as measures of economy, has been addressed to the Board of Aldermen by a group of organizations working in behalf of children, and by the St. Louis city committee of the Missouri Welfare League.The reduction of the smoke inspection force, from eight to three deputy inspectors, has also brought a protest from John H. Gundlach, head of the Smoke Abatement Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The reduction, as told yesterday, will curtail the program of educational work planned for this summer, for the purpose of lessening the smoke nuisance next fall and winter.The representatives of social agencies, who met this morning in the Social Service Building, including Dr. M. A. Bliss, chairman of the Psychiatric Clinic; Mrs. George C.
Hitchcock, president of the Children's Aid Society; Irvin Bettman, chairman of the Board of Children's Guardians; Mrs. J. P. Duball, vice president of Big Sisters organization; Miss L. Ernst, assistant superintendent of the St. Louis Child Steedman, chairman of the Community Council; Dr. Charles M. Thierly
of the St. Louis Medical Society; Judge Thomas C. Hennings, president of the Big Brother organization, and
E. G. Stege of the Provident Association.Resolution Adopted.
A resolution adopted states that
"the municipal lodging house and the legal aid clinic are agencies
of great importance in safeguarding human beings, public health,
property and safety as to be indispensable" and that "the public has had no opportunity to express its self on the question." The resolution asks that the city fathers, preceded by "ample notice of this important matter," be held before final recommendation is formulated. The program of the Aldermen, it appeared, was to pass the budget bill,
with the changes announced yesterday, at this afternoon's meeting. The Welfare League today addressed a resolution to the Board of Aldermen, asking that, at its meeting late this afternoon, it revise the matters of the clinic,
lodging house and legal aid items
of the budget."A Public Calamity." Gilbert C. Goodlett, president of the Welfare League, said, "The League considers it a public calamity that the city should eliminate
in this way such important welfare agencies as the Psychiatric Clinic,
the Municipal Lodging House, and
the Legal Aid Bureau."
The Psychiatric Clinic was established after a long struggle by private individuals and agencies,
and affords the only way of discovering what is wrong with the cases studied. The remedy must depend on the knowledge of what is wrong. The hundreds of homeless men who must be cared for next winter will, if neglected, be transformed into beggars and thieves, and will seriously molest
the residence sections of the city.
"A free legal aid bureau is positively necessary. In the large cities nearly one-third of the population
must have legal aid or forego justice and opportunity.""Each of these agencies is in process of development and the welfare of citizens depends on the growth and expansion of these bureaus until the needs of the city are met. To drop them at this time would not only withdraw the service but would also mean the establishment more difficult because of the false prejudice that will be created."Clinic Indorsed by Judges.
A statement as to the work of the Psychiatric Clinic was issued today by the Board of Estimates approved the changes made by them,
and thus made it possible for the Board of Aldermen to pass the
budget, if it so desires, at this afternoon's session.Public Utilities Meeting Opens.
JOPLIN, Mo., May 7.—With between 200 and 300 delegates in attendance, the nineteenth annual convention of the Missouri Association of Public Utilities opened here today for a three-day session.
Sessions today and tomorrow will be devoted to a discussion of subjects pertaining to the operation of public utilities. "Recent Progress in the Gas Industry" was the subject of the first session, presided over by C. A. Monro, chairman of the board of the St. Louis Gas Light Co. of St. Louis.The second session was devoted to a discussion of "The Future of the Gas Industry," presided over by R. H. Jackson, National Operative of the St. Louis Gas Light Co. of St. Louis. The third session was devoted to a discussion of "The

from the kind of work its clinic does," Chicago, Detroit, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Dallas, Los Angeles and other cities have found it imperative to maintain similar enterprises, and if
St. Louis lays down this task it will be compelled later on to deal with very lamentable and expensive results of its negligence."Joshua P. Solven, director of the Amity Association, 310-312 Market street, has submitted to the Mayor
a proposal by which his organization would take over the Municipal Lodging House, which is under lease to the city, and would run it without cost to the city. Solven says the lodging house has encouraged idlers to gather in St. Louis in winter, and has caused the city
to be known as "the Panhandle Paradise." He promises to run it on a basis that will keep the unworthy away, and will provide for homeless men, especially those passage of age.Director Brod of the Department of Public Safety, who has supervision of the smoke abatement work, was interviewed today by Gundlach, who has been active in the effort to rid St. Louis of the smoke nuisance. Gundlach proposed to take a delegation of business men before the Board of Aldermen, to protest against the cut in the smoke inspection force.
The Director advised that this should not be done, and said that he would endeavor to arrange for curtailed force of inspectors to inspect for elevator and boiler inspection, as well as for smoke work,
in such a way as to do much of the smoke abatement and educational work that had been planned for the next few months.As was told yesterday, the Ways and Means Committee of the Aldermen did not reduce, but increased by $11,436.55, the total of appropriations submitted to them by the Board of Estimates. While the Aldermen eliminated the clinic, lodging house and Legal Aid Bureau, and cut the smoke force,
they added to the appropriations scheduled in some branches, and increased the number of foremen in the street cleaning division by 12. The Board of Estimates approved the changes made by them,
and thus made it possible for the Board of Aldermen to pass the
budget, if it so desires, at this af-

WASHINGTON, May 7.—Despite the possibility of a congressional investigation of his charges against the Smithsonian Institution, and the efforts of a dozen cities and half a hundred museums to obtain the original Wright flying ma-

The machine will be shipped to Science Museum, South Kensington, London, within two months,
he says.It was pointed out that persons interested in the movement to keep the machine in this country hoped that he would delay action until a resolution could be introduced in Congress providing for an investigation, but Wright said that his word was pledged and would be kept. "The decision is unalterable, even if I wanted to change it," he declared, "I have pledged my word and will keep it."D'Annunzio's Flight Postponed.
ROME, May 7.—The proposed flight of Gabriele d'Annunzio, the Italian poet and aviator, from

has been postponed indefinitely. It was said that the postponement is for the purpose of technical preparations to widen the scope of the original project.

Jamison opposed this, saying the city already had had five months
in which to have this done, if desired. Commissioners Bean and Caf-fee understood the hearing was to be completed yesterday, but added he would refer Ferris' request to the Public Service Commission as a whole.Arguments Against Advance.
Ferris said the Bell company
"glibly talks" of an 8 per cent return on its investment and 5 to 6 per cent allowance for depreciation, when the "facts" show it may be entitled to no more than a 7 per cent return and 3 per cent for depreciation. He said the company's 5 per cent bonds are selling around par and its 7 per cent above
par."An inventory of the property that would properly reflect the unused and obsolete plant carried on the books, that would give proper consideration to original costs as well as to present-day construction costs, and that would make appropriate reductions for depreciation, allowing also for greater efficiency in the operation of the combined plant when conditions settle down, would in all probability show that no increase in rates whatever is needed," Ferris argued.Present Earnings Cited.
The Bell company now is earning a net return of $2,000,000 a year, which indicates that its properties are not being confiscated, as claimed, he continued.
He predicted that instead of the rate being raised, lower charges
would be possible in the future.Jamison, counsel for the Bell, said it deserved $1,400,000 more revenue a year through increased business rates, but was asking only $600,000. He said the Chamber of Commerce, which had interested itself in the hearing, was not opposing the increase.

COMMANDER FULLER FREED

Was Tried by Navy Courtmartial in Liquor Exposure.By the Associated Press.
NORFOLK, Va., May 7.—Commander Douglas W. Fuller was acquitted yesterday by a naval court-martial of charges of negligence in connection with the presence on board the transport Beaufort,
which he commanded, of more than 500 quarts of assorted liquors.
The liquor was seized Feb. 24 in a raid on the ship just after she had docked here from West Indian ports. The courtmartial's decision was reached in 15 minutes, after which adjournment was taken tomorrow when the case of Machinist Frank M. Hendricks, one of the six officers and a sailor, charged with being drunk on the ship, will be taken up.

CARDINAL HAYES HERE
FOR ADDRESS TONIGHT

Archbishop of New York to Be Heard by Catholic Club at the Chase.

Patrick Cardinal Hayes, Archbishop of New York, arrived in St. Louis at 1:55 o'clock this afternoon and will be the chief speaker at the banquet of the Catholic Club at Hotel Chase, starting at 8:30 o'clock this evening. He will leave on a night train for Oklahoma.

Cardinal Hayes was met at Union Station by a score of clergymen and laymen, including Archbishop Glennon and Monsignor Farrar. In a conversation with reporters, while he was being "shot" by newspaper photographers, the Cardinal recalled that his last visit to St. Louis was eight years ago, before the elevation to his present rank.

John S. Leahy, president of the Catholic Club, will preside, and Archbishop Glennon will introduce Cardinal Hayes. The Cathedral choir of 160 will sing.

Church dignitaries who are expected to be present are Bishops of Kansas City, Gilliland of St. Joseph, Schwertner of Wichita and Althoff of Belleville, and the heads of several educational and social institutions.

A tour of Catholic institutions, including the new Kenrick Seminary in Webster Groves, was arranged to precede the dinner.

CREVELING TRACT OF 44 ACRES
ON CLAYTON ROAD IS SOLD

Name of Purchaser Not Disclosed
—Property Noted for Its Fine Trees.

The 44-acre tract of land known as the Creveling place, on the Clayton road near the St. Louis Country Club and the Log Cabin Club, has been sold, it was learned by the Post-Dispatch today. The sale was made by the Albert T. Terry Real Estate Co. for the owners, Mrs. Anna Creveling and her daughter, Mrs. James N. Wellman Jr. The tract is noted locally for its fine old trees and lies on the north side of the Clayton road with a frontage of 140 feet or more running from the Barnes road to the Conway road. The Terry company confirmed the sale but withheld the name of the purchaser and the price for the present. The property has been in the Creveling family 35 years and was a picturesque brick farm house on the place built 75 years ago as a sectarian school for boys. What the new owner's disposition of the ground will be has not been disclosed, but it is understood that it will not be subdivided into building lots.

STUDENTS TO SUBMIT 'ESSAYS' Accounts of Those for Whom Schools Were Named to Be Preserved.

Superintendent of Schools John Haddox is sending to the principal of each school in the city a request that pupils be asked to study the origin of the name of their respective school buildings and to write a 200-word account of the life and public service of the person whose name was thus perpetuated.

The best essay from each school is to be selected by a committee of teachers and submitted to the superintendent, who plans to have them printed and preserved in permanent form for the use of the public.

Miller to Be Guest at Luncheon.
Mayor Miller will be the guest of honor at a luncheon to be held in the City Club, Tuesday, by former residents of Joplin and Jasper County. The Mayor was born in Joplin and his parents lived there until the death of his father less than a year ago. About 50 former residents of Joplin have been invited to the luncheon, this being the number of those whose names have been given to the committee in charge. This committee consists of F. L. Johnson, P. E. Burton, Thomas Cole, E. D. Nix, J. A. Schaeffer, W. F. Shannon, Gene Simon, J. B. Steiner, H. M. Thomas, F. A. Wilber and Walter V. Wolf.

SHORT MEASURE GASOLINE.
From the Ohio State Journal.

NOW Cincinnati is the place where the gasoline filling stations are accused of giving the public short measure. It has been found that the systematic fraud has been robbing their patrons of something like $500,000 a year in that city. Similar charges have been made in Cleveland and elsewhere and in some instances, we believe proved. It seems like a peculiarly mean imposture because the companies which deal in gasoline have the public pretty much at their mercy anyway, without resorting to direct and systematic dishonesty. So far as an outsider can judge, there is no real competition in the great gasoline industry. When the dominant corporation raises or lowers its price per gallon all the so-called independents do likewise. In the absence of competition and in the view of the tremendous demand for their product, the companies have the matter of price fixing in their own hands and no doubt they assume themselves of a substantial profit. The public is now having cash dividends on the former capitalization and on the huge stock dividends declared in recent years to evade profits taxes.

"CHARACTER CULTURE."
From the Ohio State Journal.

A COMMITTEE of the New York Board of Education, after investigating moral conditions in the public schools and finding, as it reports, an alarming lack of high standards of honor among the pupils, makes rather elaborate recommendations for moral instruction as a part of the regular training. Its first proposal, upon which the others seem to be more or less dependent, is for the establishment in high schools of the position of dean for the direction of character education. There we go again, hoping that the formal system can accomplish the impossible.

TRAVEL AND RESORTS

See the Historic
St. Lawrence
on your voyage
to Europe

To residents of North America no river in the world embraces such wealth of historic romance as the mighty St. Lawrence.

Up its great waters, the brave pioneers of New France travelled on their voyages of discovery and settlement—the renowned Jacques Cartier to found the city of Montreal, nine hundred miles from the sea; the courageous La Salle on his long journey to the Mississippi; the gallant Champlain to found Quebec; the devout Recollet Fathers on their missions to the Indians.

Travelling on the St. Lawrence Route to Europe one starts at Montreal and for two or three days the beauties and historic features of the river pass before one in entrancing panorama. To view them adds immeasurably to the pleasure of the overseas voyage.

MRS. ALICE GILLILAND NEW HEAD OF ROYAL NEIGHBORS

Mrs. A. M. Shepherd of Columbia, Mo., Among Other Officers Elected at Little Rock.

By the Associated Press.
HOT SPRINGS, Ark., May 6.—Mrs. Alice Gilliland of Rock Island, Ill., was elected supreme oracle of the Royal Neighbors of America at the quadrennial conference of the supreme camp today. She succeeds Mrs. Eva Child of Janesville, Wis. Mrs. Gilliland was formerly supreme recorder.

Other officers elected included: Mrs. Erna M. Bartell, Rock Island, supreme recorder; Mrs. Clara Hoyt, Janesville, Wis., supreme recorder; Mrs. Hada M. Carlson, Moline, Ill., supreme physician. Supreme managers elected were Mrs. Anna M. Blair, Webster City, Ia.; Mrs. Mabel Walsh, Independence, Kan.; Mrs. Alice C. Nash, Minneapolis, Minn.; Mrs. Ella Foster, Chanler, Ok.; and Mrs. Anna M. Shepherd, Columbia, Mo.

The status of the contending Missouri delegations was settled by seating that led by Mrs. Anna M. Shepherd of Columbia. The Credentials Committee, in deciding the Missouri contest, held that the majority should rule in choosing State delegates.

C. A. SEVERANCE, FORMER LAW
PARTNER OF KELLOGG, DEAD

By the Associated Press.
ST. PAUL, Minn., May 7.—Cordell A. Severance of St. Paul, former president of the American Bar Association and at one time law partner of Frank B. Kellogg, now Secretary of State, died yesterday in Pasadena, Cal.

Severance, who was 62 years old, had been critically ill for two months with heart trouble. He had an international reputation as an authority on corporate law and had appeared in many important legal cases in various parts of the United States. As a special assistant to the United States Attorney General, he prosecuted the Government's successful case against the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific Railroad Co.'s to dissolve their combination in restraint of trade. The body will be brought to Minnesota next week.

ASSAULTS MODERNIST PRACTICES
IN INDIAN MISSIONARY WORK

Official Says Northern Assembly Presbyterian Workers Have Dealt Christianity a Blow.

By the Associated Press.
MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 7.—Arrangement of "modernist" practices in Christian work in India and an indictment of the missionary activities of Presbyterians at the northern assembly, was contained in an address delivered here yesterday before the World Christian Fundamental convention by Walkin Roberts, general secretary of the Northeast India general mission.

Roberts, who spoke on "Modernism in India," said that Presbyterian missionaries have "given the most staggering blow to Christian work in India that it has received during the last decade."

The speaker said that the orthodox India Christians have maintained that hundreds are returning to idolatry because their faith in the Bible and the Christ is being destroyed by these missionaries and modernism.

The Presbyterian church was merged into what is known now as the Union Church of North India, Roberts said, and as such probably will be the strongest modernist church in the Indian empire. The speaker urged those holding membership in the northern assembly of the Presbyterian church either to right this situation and withdraw its agents from "this unholy union" or to cease supporting this work.

E. M. TIPTON NAMED TO HEAR
STANDARD OIL OUSTER SUIT

Supreme Court of Missouri Appoints Kansas City Attorney as Special Commissioner.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 7.—The Supreme Court, en banc, today appointed Ernest M. Tipton of Kansas City, an attorney, as Special Commissioner to take testimony in the ouster proceedings instituted by the State against the Standard Oil Co. of Indiana for alleged violations of the Missouri antitrust laws. The ouster case now is pending in Supreme Court.

Appointment of Tipton, a member of the Board of Law Examiners, was made by the court after Attorney-General Otto and attorneys for the Standard Oil Company filed a stipulation agreeing on selection of Tipton. The latter is a member of the Kansas City firm of Grover, Tipton & Graves.

A conference will be held by Tipton, the Attorney-General and attorneys for the company about May 26, to fix the date for beginning of the hearings to take testimony. These hearings will extend over a period of several months.

ADMIRAL STURDEE, VICTOR OF FALKLAND BATTLE, DEAD

He Also Took Part in Battle of Jutland—Commanded Anglo-American Force at Samoa.

By the Associated Press.
LONDON, May 7.—Sir Doveton Sturdee, Admiral of the fleet, who commanded the British squadron in the battle of Falkland Islands in 1914 and later participated in the battle of Jutland, died today. A German fleet was sunk at the Falkland battle.

Admiral Sturdee has been ill for some time at his residence in Camberley, in Surrey, where his death occurred. Entering the navy in 1871, he rose by successive stages to the rank of Rear Admiral in 1908, and was made a Vice Admiral just before the war began. He commanded the Anglo-American force in the Samoan troubles of 1898-99. A baronetcy was conferred on him in 1916.

CHORAL CLUB ENDS SEASON

K. of C. Singers Give Final Concert

The Knights of Columbus Choral Club, consisting of 60 male singers, gave its final concert of the season last night at the auditorium of St. Louis University, under the direction of William Theodore Diebels. Fritz Renk, violinist, of Chicago, was the soloist, and George E. Musken, tenor, supplied incidental passages in several of the choral works.

Renk offered two movements of Wieniawski's Second Concerto, a group of transcriptions and his own negro melody, "To a Plectaninny." Among the ensemble numbers were Kremsner's "Hymn to the Madonna," Brewer's "The Birth of Love," Nevin's "The Rosary," and Marcello's setting of Psalm VIII, sung in Italian.

FASTER MAIL TO THE EAST

Improved Express Service From
New York Also on Pennsylvania.

Coincident with the shortening of passenger train schedules between St. Louis and New York, improved mail and express service has been announced by the Pennsylvania Railroad. Train No. 11, carrying express matter and all classes of mail, hereafter will leave New York at 10:45 p. m., and will arrive in St. Louis at 11:30 p. m.

This is a schedule of 25 hours and 45 minutes, and is two hours and 45 minutes faster than the best previous schedule.

The new 24-hour passenger train, "The American," carries first-class mail, and its time of departure from New York, 6:06 p. m., enables it to carry letters from New York in the early afternoon. Eastbound, "The American" reaches New York at 10:05 a. m., permitting delivery of letters before the close of the financial day.

BODY OF SLAIN WOMAN FOUND
By the Associated Press.
ALEXANDRIA, La., May 7.—After a night of fruitless investigation, the authorities today were baffled by the mystery of the identity of a well-dressed young woman whose body was found in the woods near Longleaf, La., yesterday. A coroner's inquest failed to uncover any clues, and officers who canvassed the community reported that no woman is missing from that section. The body, which was clad in a silk skirt, silk waist and underwear, had evidently been lying for several weeks at the spot where it was found. There was a bullet hole in the back of the head. The authorities are working on the theory that the victim was killed elsewhere and the body brought to its lonely resting place.

VETO PREDICTED FOR TRAVEL EXPENSE BILL

Measure Which Limits Outlay of State Employees Is Not Popular With Them.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
JEFFERSON CITY, May 7.—A bill passed by the Legislature placing a limit on the amount of expense that may be incurred by the State employees when traveling on official business, and requiring affidavits and vouchers covering expenditures, probably will be vetoed by Gov. Baker, it was learned today, although the measure was endorsed by the Governor. State employees have been much disturbed by passage of the bill and have been urging it be vetoed.

This measure was one of three Baker bills passed by the Legislature, out of 25 on the Governor's legislative program. The other two bills passed related to appointment of oil inspectors, revised requirements on oil sold in the State and appointment of agents to supervise collection of the gasoline tax.

A limit of $5 a day for room and board in cities of more than 100,000 population is provided in the bill. When the State employee is in cities of less than 100,000 population the limit would be $4 a day. The measure does not limit railroad fare, taxicab hire and other such items. It would require vouchers for expenditures of more than $1 and require an affidavit as to correctness of the account.

Opponents of the bill have attacked it as unconstitutional on the ground it exempts from the requirements all elective State officers. This feature makes it class legislation, it is contended. The Attorney-General has rendered an opinion questioning the constitutionality of the bill.

MEXICAN POSTAL RATES ARE BOOSTED TO FIGHT LOCUSTS
Plague Is Sweeping North and West From the Tehuantepec States.

Correspondence of the Associated Press.
MEXICO CITY, April 22.—New sources of revenue are constantly being uncovered by the Calles administration in prosecuting its campaign for the fiscal rehabilitation of the Government.

A 10 per cent increase in domestic postage rates has been decreed by the President to raise funds for the checking of a plague of locusts which is sweeping north and west from the Tehuantepec states. The proceeds from a 1/2 cent surtax on each liter on gasoline will be employed in building roads.

With new sources of income to meet extraordinary demands on the Federal treasury, increasing returns from the income and corporation profits taxes, the budget balance theoretically if not effectively, railway and telegraph deficits wiped out by the abolition of passes and franks, Government officials are confident that the President's efforts to secure a surplus of $37,500,000 before Sept. 1, to establish a single bank of issue will be successful.

WELL KNOWN ST. LOUIS RAILROAD MAN ENDORSES HERB JUICE

Mr. R. D. Kelly, General Yardmaster for the M. & T. Railroad, Thinks Everyone Should Know of This Great Remedy.

"Your Herb Juice is the only medicine that has ever given me any relief from indigestion and constipation," said Mr. R. D. Kelly, who resides at 8517 North Broadway, St. Louis.

"Before I was fortunate enough to hear about Herb Juice," continued Mr. Kelly, "I had spent thousands of dollars on my stomach, and took everything I could hear of. I have been bothered for a number of years with stomach trouble and chronic constipation. I never felt like eating. In fact I was afraid to eat as I suffered so with gas and indigestion. It seemed as though my food would ferment as soon as it reached my stomach. Gas would form and press around my heart, causing me a very distressed feeling. The poison which accumulated in my system, due to constipation, had upset me. My kidneys and liver were very irregular, and my blood was not in a very healthy condition. I have taken only two bottles of Herb Juice, and I now feel better than I have felt in years. I never have any more trouble with my stomach and I eat anything I want. My bowels, kidneys and liver all act regularly and I can just feel myself gaining in health and strength every day. I absolutely know that Herb Juice is responsible for the improvement in my health, and I cannot find words to express my appreciation and gratitude for all that it has done for me."

THE HERB JUICE MAN HAS ESTABLISHED HEADQUARTERS AT JUDGE & DOUGLAS DRUG COMPANY, 514 WASHINGTON AV. WHERE HE WILL MEET THE LOCAL PUBLIC DAILY, INTRODUCING AND EXPLAINING THE MERITS OF THIS REMEDY.

MOTOR DRIVEN CAMERAS

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., May 7.—Motor-driven cameras have recently been placed in operation. The device is a small motor attached to the camera and connected in such a way as to insure regularity of speed.

A press of a button on the tripod lends the desired speed, while the camera man turns his attention elsewhere until the scene is "shot." The pressing of another button stops the camera.

While the "third hand," directors say, insures regularity of speed more effectively than the most expert camera man, the device is the photographer, once taken the camera, may be directed lighting effects, which are considered his most important element.

BURTON PROPOSES BAN ON EXPORT OF POISON GAS

American Offers Clause to Arms Traffic Treaty Which Condemns Use of That Weapon.

COOLIDGE FAVORS EXPORT PROHIBITION

Delegates to Geneva Conference From France, Italy and China Approve Burton's Plan.

By the Associated Press. GENEVA, May 7.—Condemnation of the use of poison gas and prohibition of its exportation for war purposes is proposed in a new article of the draft convention offered by Representative Theodore E. Burton of Ohio, heading the American delegation, at today's session of the International Conference for the Control of Traffic in Arms.

Burton said he expressed the desire of the American Government and people that some such provision regarding poison gas be adopted. He said the subject had been brought to the attention of President Coolidge and that the President would approve a prohibition of the exportation of poison gas for war purposes.

He recalled that nine of the Powers that signed the Washington treaty agreed to try to induce other Powers to agree to measures forbidding the use of asphyxiating gases in warfare, but he admitted there are obstacles to prohibiting the export of such gases.

The Burton proposal was referred to a committee of experts. Other Powers Favorable.

Before the Burton proposal was referred to a committee of experts, delegates from France, Italy and China expressed themselves in favor of the proposal.

Burton said the objections that he has heard to the plan are that prohibition of the export of poisonous gases may give an industrial advantage to some countries. He said the object of the conference should be to establish a basis of equality between countries that can manufacture gases and those that cannot, because, he said, some of these gases are needed for industrial purposes.

The article proposed by Burton declares that the use in war of poisonous gases and liquids has been justly condemned by public opinion, and that the prohibition of such use has been incorporated in treaties which have been signed by a majority of the civilized Powers.

Text of Article.

"The high contracting parties therefore agree absolutely to prohibit the export from their territory of any such asphyxiating, poisonous or other gases and all analogous liquids intended or designed for use in connection with the operations of war," the article says.

Burton also submitted an alternative text as follows:

"To the end of lessening the horrors of war and ameliorating the sufferings of humanity incident thereto, the high contracting parties agree to control the traffic in poisonous gases by prohibiting the exportation of all asphyxiating, toxic or deleterious gases and all analogous liquids, materials and devices manufactured and intended for use in warfare, under adequate penalties applicable in all places where such high contracting parties exercise jurisdiction or control."

M. Soskowsky, delegate from Poland, said Burton's proposal would make war less horrible, but moved an amendment prohibiting also the exportation of bacteria for war purposes, which, he said, was as inhuman as poison gas.

The Hungarian delegation suggested an amendment permitting the export of "means of defense" against chemical warfare.

League Refuses Austrian Loan. By the Associated Press. VIENNA, May 7.—The Austrian

Government's request for permission to float a special loan to finance electrification of the railroads has been refused by the League of Nations' Control Committee for Austria. Austria was informed that she must obtain the funds out of the balance of the international loan in the hands of the league commissioner.

HARD ROADS AND TAXES HIT FRISCO RAILWAY

Annual Report, However, Shows Increase of $2,162,- 000 in Balance for 1924.

Balance in the accounts of the St. Louis-San Francisco (Frisco) Railway Co. as of Dec. 31 last, is shown in the annual report for 1924 as $5,925,574.23. This is an increase of $2,162,715.23 over the previous year, or 57.47 per cent, but payment of dividends was inaugurated late in the year, ending a fruitless period for the stockholders.

Payment of dividends on the preferred stock was begun on Nov. 1, and a 7 per cent dividend has been declared for this year. A dividend on the common stock at the annual rate of 5 per cent was begun on Jan. 15. The balance given is what remains from net operating revenue after deduction of taxes, interest on obligations and returns.

Operating revenue for the year was $96,569,128.76, an increase of $875,987.17 over 1923 or 1 per cent. Operating expenses amounted to $64,092,611.35, a decrease of $1,842,698.19, or 2.8 per cent. Net operating revenue was $32,476,517.41, an increase of $2,718,895.54, or 11.5 per cent.

Less Passenger Traffic.
"The decrease in passenger traffic during the year was due principally," the report states, "to the extension and completion of hard roads, whereby not only much of the short travel, but also an appreciable proportion of the long-distance travel was accommodated by motor-driven vehicles."

In this connection the Frisco has applied to the Missouri Public Service Commission for permission to abandon all urban train service out of St. Louis, pleading that private automobiles and busses have made this service a losing proposition, but commuters are protesting against the request.

"The tax burden is ever increasing," the report goes on. "Taxes paid by the company have increased from $896,858 in 1923 to $4,621,529 in 1924, or 416 per cent. The company's mileage has increased during the same period slightly more than 2 per cent. Out of every dollar earned by it, the company paid out in taxes in 1924 about 2 1/2 cents; in 1923, about 5 cents."

Interstate Commerce Commission valuation of the Frisco system as of June 30, 1918, has been placed at $197,823,427, but valuations have not been received on three of the smaller constituent companies and the report announces, the company is protesting against the valuations, maintaining that its property is worth at least book value and objecting to pricing and depreciation methods used in reaching the commission's figures. Since the date of the valuation, it is stated, additional investment in road and equipment has amounted to more than $24,000,000.

In 1924 there were additions and betterments made, worth $2,929,221.28. New industries to the number of 204 located along the Frisco lines. Mileage operated was 5399. The rolling stock included 980 locomotives, 697 passenger coaches, 32,051 freight cars and 1305 company cars.

BRAHMAN CATTLE RECEIVED AT NATIONAL STOCKYARDS

Carload of Stock, Regarded as Sacred in India, Received by Market from Texas.

A consignment of Brahman, or Hindu, cattle, which are sacred to some parts of India, was received today by John Clay & Co., a livestock commission firm at National Stockyards, from a shipper at Palfurris, Tex., for sale as beef on the local market.

The carload consignment contained 17 bulls, all distinguished by a hump on their shoulders. The cattle are of the kind recognized by circusgoers, and a representative of the St. Louis Zoo was instructed to inspect them, with a view of prospective purchase of a specimen or two.

The cattle come from the portion of the extreme Southeastern Texas, where cattle tick has been prevalent. The Brahman cattle are immune from this scourge, and it is presumed the shipment received here is from stock originally imported from India.

Train Holdup Plot Reported.

STEUBENVILLE, O., May 7.—A reported plot to hold up Pennsylvania train No. 24, a New York-St. Louis express, caused a large squad of armed deputies and railroad police to be stationed on the car of the train, but it sped through the tunnel with no disturbance.

Over today. Authorities were informed by a man who had heard the plot discussed in a Steubenville restaurant by four roughly clad men. Two of the men, they were informed, were to board the train here and were to bring the express to a stop at Gould's tunnel by signaling the engineer with the bell rope. The deputies and armed police stationed themselves in every

3000 IN PRISON FOR COMPLICITY IN BULGARIAN PLOTS

Sofia Authorities Say Communist Organization Is More Extensive Than at First Supposed.

By the Associated Press.
SOFIA, Bulgaria, May 7.—More arrests have been made in consequence of revelations at the trial of those charged with the complicity in the Cathedral bombing tragedy.

There are now about 3000 persons in prison throughout Bulgaria,
and the authorities say that the communist organization, which is blamed for the plot, is more far reaching than was at first supposed.

Nearly all members of the middle-class who were involved in the movement have been apprehended.
Few peasants were imbued with the communist doctrines, the authorities said, and the majority of the arrests were in towns where poverty and discontent offers a favorable field for the red propaganda.

The militia continues its close watch on all persons entering or leaving Sofia, and several cases are reported of persons leaving bombs
or explosives in the public gardens, fearing to be caught with them in their possession.

A remarkable feature of the recent events is the amount of army ammunition in the hands of the civilian population and the authorities expect that further isolated acts of violence are bound to occur until the disarmament is general.

Bulgarian Foreign Minister to Explain Situation to Powers.

By the Associated Press.
BELGRADE, Yugo-Slavia, May 7.—The Bulgarian Foreign Minister, Col. Kalfoff, has arrived here on his way to Paris, London and Rome to explain the difficulties of his country's situation to the Powers. In a statement given out after an interview with Foreign Minister Ninichitch, Col. Kalfoff said:

"My voyage abroad is in connection with the communist offensive in Bulgaria, which shows clearly that the communist danger is a reality which must be reckoned with. The situation is general, and does not menace Bulgaria alone.

"The attacks up to the present
have been repulsed, and I am convinced that they will not be repeated. But if we are mistaken in our hopes, I affirm that the Bulgarian Government, supported by the Parliament and the country, will do its utmost to stifle the attempts of the communists, whose aim is to destroy the social order.

"It is to be hoped that this effort will receive the support of the Governments and peoples of all civilized lands. I stopped in Belgrade to talk with Foreign Minister Ninichitch. I am glad to say that he fully shares the Bulgarian Government's view of this question."

100 ST. LOUIS BUSINESS MEN TO VISIT 49 MISSOURI CITIES

Mayor Miller to Make "Good Will" Tour May 18 to 23 Sponsored by Chamber of Commerce.

Representatives of 28 different lines of business in St. Louis have signified their intention of making the Chamber of Commerce "Good will" tour through 49 Missouri cities from May 18-23, inclusive.
Approximately 100 business men
will make the trip.

Delegates will leave St. Louis on a special train of Pullmans over the Missouri Pacific at 3 a. m. May 18. At each of the stops a parade, headed by a band, will be made through the business section of the city. Short speeches will be made by members of the delegation and souvenirs of St. Louis products will be distributed. In cities where night stops will be made extensive programs have been arranged.

Mayor Miller yesterday signified
his intention of making the trip,
which is being made in the interests of St. Louis business.

POLICE TAKE COLLECTION FOR WOMAN 'HOBBO' IN MALE GARB

Grace Crow Was Working Way
From Virginia Back to Her Farm in Oklahoma.

Grace Crow, halfbreed Cherokee Indian who, in man's attire, is working her way from Virginia back to her 150-acre farm near White Eagle, Ok., will have easy going from St. Louis to her home.

Grace, who is 34 years old, was spotted as a woman last night by a policeman when she applied at Central District for lodging for the night. She readily admitted her sex and told of "bumming" her way here from Virginia, where she was working in a circus as a broncho rider. She has been making enough money to live by washing dishes in restaurants. Sympathetic policemen took up a collection and she will be able to make a quick trip back to her home. She said she was the daughter of Blue Bird, an Indian squaw, and Jack Crow, a cowpuncher. Her parents are dead.

it was the coffee served at the Maxwell House that its distinguished visitors praised most highly—a special blend wonderfully rich and mellow. In all parts of the country, families who enjoy the best have heard of this coffee and have secured it for their own tables. Today

MUSEUM FOUND AT SANCTUARY OF A PUNIC GODDESS

Prorok Expedition at City of Carthage Digs Through 5-Foot Wall of Vault Built by Romans.

BY COUNT BYRON DE PROROK.

By Wireless to the Post-Dispatch.
Copyright, 1936, by the New York Times

EXCAVATION CAMP, Carthage.

May 6.—The curious mixture of dead Roman and Punic civilization which fills the soil of Carthage has provided the excavators with a natural museum at the sanctuary of the Goddess Tanit,
which is perhaps unique in the world.

The excavation of Punic sites
in this area was stopped on the north side by the rubble wall of a long Roman vault—probably the foundation of a villa—the top of which was about three feet below
the present surface of the ground and the bottom about ten feet lower. Breaking a breach through this wall, which was five feet thick,
the explorers excavated the interior
vault and found to their surprise that it was filled with Punic vessels standing in place.

Urns Filled with Bones.
The Roman constructors simply raised their vault over a part of the sanctuary sacred to their famous rivals. They knew what they were doing, for whether or not the votive stones of the sanctuary had already been buried, when the Romans rebuilt Carthage, the foundations of this vault reach down to the early Punic level.

Excavating the interior of the vault, urns were found filled with the bones of children, perhaps sacrificed to the mysterious Goddess Tanit, lying on their sides or upside down. The Romans thus had thrown aside the urns which came in their way in digging their foundations.

More striking still it was discovered that these were stoles,
which the Romans had not taken the trouble to move, imbedded in their masonry for all time to come.

Amazing View in Interior.

The picture of the interior of the vault was so amazing that Prof.
Francis W. Kelsey of the University of Michigan, who is directing the operations in person, and who declares he had never seen a sight similar to this, decided not to complete the excavation of the vault,
but leave it as it stands, a museum
of Punic stoles, which the Roman destroyers of Carthage unwillingly provided for the world.

The buried vault, which is 11
feet wide and 70 feet long, itself forms the walls and roof of this museum, and the breaches between the excavators entered will be converted into doors and skylights. Within, the excavations have been carried out with a view to preserving for scholars and laymen of the future the cross-section of Carthage through which the explorers dug. From now on the visitor to Carthage may step back from bright sunlight fields and with an undulating mass of pop-les and the world of honking automobiles and modern villas, into dusty regions of the past to see the handiwork of two great rival antiquities lying side by side as they left them.

Sculptured With Human Figures.
At his feet the stoles are crowded with stiles of all shapes, some merely round boulders, some in the form of disks with the primitive triangular sign of Tanit scratched
on them and some of larger size cut from altars, with human figures,
vases and temple doors sculptured
in them.

At his side are stiles partly buried in the wall of the vault—stiles
which may commemorate children burned alive by pious and patriotic Carthaginians, so that Tanit might give victory over the Roman makers of the wall which now clasps
them so closely in an enduring embrace of masonry.

To Close Operations May 14.

In the cross section of earth between the two levels, the visitor
may see under the upper stiles urns imbedded in the soil which the excavators have exposed but which was left undisturbed, never to be removed from the place in which originally buried. These urns probably contain the bones of children.
At still higher levels other urns
were found lying just as dropped when the Roman builders of the wall flung them aside. Beyond this vault was found another running alongside it and also containing stiles, but unfortunately only a small part on the property possessed by the Franco-American expedition.

The excavation area, the expedition controls will soon be practically finished and so much evidence has already been obtained requiring study that with the hot season
coming on rapidly, Count De Pro-

rok has decided to close down all operations at Carthage for the session on May 14.

American Women Sift Contents.

To feminine fingers has been introduced the delicate work of sifting the contents of the urns.

This preliminary field examination of the urns is being carried out under the direction of Prof. Kelsey, chiefly by three American women graduates of the University of Michigan. Dr. Germa Butler and Miss Nita L. Butler, research fellows of the University of Michigan, and Miss Julia E. Britton, who is studying archeology at the Michigan Academy in Rome, with Mrs.

Kelsey assisting.

The first six urns which they have searched reveal gruesome evidence of the extent to which the Carthaginians, for all their deeply rooted interest in worldly affairs
and business, carried out their religious devotions. Each urn has been found to contain a heaping double handful of fragments of bones, those of infant children.

Parts of Human Skeleton.

None of the fragments of bones is more than two inches long, but some of them are distinctive enough to be identified as belonging to the skull or other parts of the human skeleton. Mixed with them also are some bones apparently belonging to birds, but nothing else, save a solitary bead, was in one of them.

The contents of each urn is being saved, and the bones, roughly separated according to size, are put for safe-keeping in boxes in the earth after the usual

More than 1200 of these

"Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is the only thing that relieved me of constipation"

Beware of the dangerous diseases which are constipation's toll.

Constipation is dreaded, not only for its insidious self, but for the serious diseases which may be traced to it. Mr. Palladon tells us
the helpful story of his relief.

Being hard work while constipated brought on piles, from which I suffered for two years. I tried almost every remedy without success. Finally I tried Kellogg's ALL-BRAN and it has made me fit again. It is the only thing that helped me, and I want everybody to know about it.

(Signed) JOHN PALLADON,
Canton, N. Y.

You can get sure, prompt, permanent relief from constipation.
Simply eat Kellogg's ALL-BRAN

regularly. Two tablespoonsful daily, or in chronic cases, with every meal. Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN. It is nature's own way of cleaning the intestine. It is a bulk food which sweeps the system of constipation's poisons and stimulates normal, healthy action.

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to be permanently effective, if eaten regularly, or your grocer returns the purchase price. Eat it with milk, cream, fruit, or try
the recipes printed on the package.
Made in Battle Creek, Michigan.
Served in leading hotels and restaurants. Your grocer sells it.

PETITIONS ON MERGER OF CITY AND COUNTY FILED

Freeholders to Work Out Plan for Submission to Vote to Be Samed Within 29 Days.
Within 29 days from today, city and county authorities must meet to take up the appointment of a Board of Freeholders which will draft a plan of whole or partial merger of St. Louis and St. Louis County. Within 29 days the appointments must be made and within a year thereafter the vote must submit its plan to the vote of the city and county at separate elections.

Election boards of the city and county yesterday certified the petitions for the appointment of the board, those in the city being certified to Mayor Miller and those in the county to Circuit Judge McElhinney. The petitions were circulated by the Metropolitan Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Those in the county bore 112 signatures, but only 1940 of these were accepted as valid, the minimum required being 1411. Those in the city bore 11,787, of which 9920 were accepted, considerably more than the minimum. Mayor Miller will call the 16 Circuit Judges of the city to meet with him for the appointment of nine city freeholders and Judge McElhinney will call his colleague on the Circuit bench, the Probate Judge and the three county Judges for the appointment of nine county freeholders. The 18 members of the board will meet as one group.

SIX MORE TORNADO VICTIMS PLACED IN ST. LOUIS HOSPITAL

Arrivals at the Missouri Baptist Bring Total Sent Here to 125.

The total of patients sent to St. Louis hospitals from the tornado-swept area of Illinois was brought to 125 yesterday with the arrival of six more sufferers who were taken in charge by the St. Louis Chapter of the American Red Cross and placed in the Missouri Baptist Sanitarium for treatment. They were sent here by Red Cross medical authorities in the stricken district.

All hospital expenses of those sent here have been paid by the Red Cross and clothing has been provided for many who lost all they had in the storm. The organization also has taken steps toward the rehabilitation of those who have been returned to their homes. No plans for the future of patients are made, however, until home conditions are investigated and physicians consulted to determine what kind of work the patients are best able to perform.

SANITARIUM PATIENT'S DEATH LAID TO NATURAL CAUSES

A verdict of death from natural causes was returned by a Coroner's jury today after an inquiry into the death of Mrs. Marie K. Lamb, 65 years old, at the City Sanitarium. Mrs. Lamb died March 30, after taking a cold bath, and the recent inquiry was caused by reports that she had been drowned in the bathtub. An autopsy resulted in a report that death was not caused by drowning, but that it was due to chronic heart disease and nephritis, rather than to apoplexy, which was first stated as the cause.

Ruling for Wilson & Co. Upheld.

By the Associated Press.
PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—The Federal Circuit Court of Appeals today upheld the New Jersey Federal District Court in dismissing the receivers appointed by Vice Chancellor Backus for Wilson & Co., Inc., meat packers. The Appellate Court joined with Judge Backus of the District Court in criticism of Maurice L. Klein in his efforts to throw the company into a receivership, which both tribunals declared "perilously jeopardized" the rights of more than 700 stockholders of the Wilson company. Wilson & Co. after Vice Chancellor Backus ap-

WHY SODA ACTS BAD IN STOMACH

It Forms Harmful Gases and Creates More Acidity

While soda temporarily relieves sour, acid stomach, soda afterwards causes the stomach to secrete more acids and gases than before, making matters worse.

Prove this for yourself. Place in a glass of water a little vinegar or lemon juice. This represents the acid in your stomach. They add a pinch of baking soda (bicarbonate of soda) and instantly thousands of bubbles of gas are formed. This same thing happens in your stomach when you take soda for sour stomach. Gas is rapidly formed and the bloating, belching, shortness of breath and palpitation are increased, leaving your stomach in a more acid condition than before.

Now make this same test with "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia." No gases are formed—no bubbles at all. Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach and relief will come instantly. For fifty years genuine "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it is more pleasing to take. Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent bottles, any drug store.

pointed the receiver, had the Federal District Court in New York name friendly receivers.

SALE OF THREE PINTS OF WINE*Lon Sherlock of Louisiana, Mo., Loses Appeal of Conviction—
Was Also Fined $1000.

For selling three pints of wine in violation of the State dry law, Lou Sherlock of Louisiana, Mo., must serve one year in the county jail and pay a fine of $1000, according to a decision handed down by the St. Louis Court of Appeals. The decision affirms the verdict of a jury which found Sherlock guilty Dec. 5, 1923, in the Pike Circuit Court.

Testimony showed that defendant sold the wine to three young men, receiving $1.50 for it. The purchasers were arrested on leaving Sherlock's premises and implicated him. He contended on appeal that the evidence against him did not show the wine contained over one-half of 1 per cent alcohol on the day of sale, although a chemist who analyzed it on the day of Sherlock's trial found it to contain 20 per cent alcohol by volume.

Judge Daues, who wrote the Appellate Court decision, holds that there was not the remotest evidence to prove that the wine was fermented grape juice on the date of sale. Further, it was for the jury to determine whether the liquor was intoxicating, the decision states.

TWO BIG TREMORS RECORDEDBy the Associated Press.
OTTAWA, Ontario, May 7.—A terrific earthquake, believed to have occurred somewhere at sea, was indicated in two series of tremors, recorded Tuesday night and yesterday at the Dominion Observatory.

Observatory officials have been unable to determine the distance to the center, but they believe that if the earthquake occurred in an inhabited part of the globe the damage would be as great as that experienced at Tokio. The first tremor was recorded at 7:42 o'clock Tuesday night, and the shocks lasted two hours and a half. The second quake was registered at 4:05 o'clock Wednesday morning.

How Hindenburg's Victory Affects Britain, France, Italy

A monarchist at heart and a profest apostle of revenge, as some describe Field-Marshal von Hindenburg, the ex-Kaiser's Commander-in-Chief was elected President of the German Republic so unexpectedly that the shock to Europe is evident in the press of Britain, France and Italy.

In THE LITERARY DIGEST this week, the May 9th number, translations of editorial opinion in these countries and in Germany are presented in an interesting article that will reveal to the American public how the Field-Marshal's election is looked upon abroad. In another feature news-article a wide survey of American editorial opinion upon Hindenburg's election is shown. There are also reproductions of some of the most striking American and European cartoons that tell the story in picture form, humorously and pointedly.

These, however, are only two of the many interesting news-features in this number. Among others are:

Georgia Peach Hits Five Home Runs in Two Days; Sisler's Streak Still On

With Two Safeties Yesterday, Browns' Manager Has Hit Safely in 21 Games, Average .424—Tigers Find Batting Eyes and Make 18 Hits.

By Herman Weckel.

Ty Cobb is on the rampage again. The roaring Bengal is today hitting the ball for an average of over .500 and smashing old records with his bat, day by day. He holds another modern mark, today, the result of two home runs here, yesterday. This gave Cobb a total of five circuit drives on two successive days, breaking the old record of four. Since returning to the batting order Ty has been poison to all hurlers.

Cobb yesterday hit both four-baggers against southpaw pitchers. The total of five in two days equals

THIRTY DERBY ELIGIBLES AT LOUISVILLE; 50 ARE EXPECTED

Field of Twenty Or More Likely To Face Barrier

Candidates Show Well in Workouts at Churchill Downs Course.

QUATRIN TO BE TESTED

Derby Favorite Will Be Sent Full Route Between Races Next Saturday.

By the Associated Press.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 7.—The more than 30 Kentucky Derby eligibles quartered here were augmented today, and will be the remainder of the week by the arrivals of the eligibles from Lexington due to the close of the opening State meeting there. More entries for the classic are expected from the East early next week following the running of the Preakness. In all, it is said, nearly 50 Derby nominees will be here by the middle of next week. Of this number not more than 20 are expected to go to the post. With the track here in good condition, horses yesterday showed a keen desire to run fast but were permitted to go only short distances. Abstract was the exception and turned in a mile try in 1:42, considered the best work of the day. Boon Companion, Elase and Cup Bearer traveled short distances in more than satisfactory time. Quatrain and Captain Hal only were held to short gallops and returned to their stables.

Interest of the rail birds was switched momentarily from the Derby to preparation of candidates for the Clark Handicap, feature event on Saturday's opening card at Churchill Downs. It is worth $10,000 and is attracting attention because of outstanding Derby eligibles entered in it. Among them are Kentucky Cardinal, Captain Hal, Lee O. Cotner, Boon Companion, Elase and Abstract, but whether all or any will start is another question.

The best moves made by older horses in preparation for the Clark event yesterday were made by Sunspere and Dure Ray, the former covering a mile and an eighth in 2:02.3 and the latter six furlongs in 1:14.

A Real Test for Quatrain.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.
LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 7.—The most pretentious move of Derby eligibles at the Downs yesterday came from Abstract, which worked with his stable companion, Annihilator. They stepped the first quarter in 23 4-5, half in 48 2-5, three-quarters in 1:12. Hare Annihilator began to fall back and Abstract went out the mile in 1:42, a very creditable work for the track. Annihilator was timed the three quarters in 1:43 4-5.

Captain Hal and Quatrain were both out for long gallops. It is likely that Captain Hal will start in the Clark Handicap Saturday, although it has not been fully decided.

Frederick Johnson said this morning that he would send Quatrain to the Downs Saturday. Quatrain was not named for the Clark, although Kentucky Cardinal, Lee O. Cotner, Boon Companion, Abstract and Elase are among the candidates eligible for the handicap. Only five 2-year-olds have won the Clark Handicap since 1912.

Normandy Back In County School Athletic League

Enters Team in Track and Field Meet to Be Held Next Friday.

The annual County High School track meet will be held Friday afternoon, May 15, at the Francis Field. The following five schools are entered: Webster, Clayton, Maplewood, University City and Normandy.

Following the action of the County League Board in reinstating Normandy, which withdrew last October, during the football season, after a constitutional dispute, that school has completed plans to place a track team on the field next week. This means that Normandy will have a football team in competition next fall.

Because of strained relations between certain members, the football schedule will be left to the individual schools. There will be no cup awarded to the championship team.

The new requirements of the league state that 80 per cent of all the contests must be played against league members, and that any member of a high school team who has played on any team where any player at one time shall have received pay for his services, shall himself be ineligible to compete on the school team.

The decision to stop awarding cups in the major sports will make the emblems and letters the only reward for the players. The basketball trophy now in competition, and the point trophy for track will be the last two remaining to strive for.

Although Kirkwood, the other member of the county circuit to withdraw, has not signified willingness to come back within the fold, it is assumed that that school will be back in the league with the opening of the football season.

W. D. Tillman, superintendent of the Kirkwood High School, voted on the newly adopted constitution, which goes into effect next semester, making the rulings of all the schools uniform and harmonious.

Goldberg Match With Ray Alfano

Ray Alfano and Eddie Goldberg, local featherweight favorites, have been matched by Harry Cook of the Business Men's A. C. for the feature attraction of an amateur boxing tournament to be staged next Wednesday night at the Battery A arena. Alfano holds the national amateur title for his division. Mike Sansone, the district flyweight champion, is sought for another special match on the Battery program, according to Cook. Both Alfano and Sansone are now in Boston where they competed in a tournament last night. They are scheduled to return home Saturday.

Goldberg earned the right to tackle Alfano in the Battery arena last night. He was engaged by his recent triumph over Louis Terry, kate king of the local featherweight flock. The showing made by the South Side ringster in his battle with Terry convinced many spectators that Goldberg has the rugged Alfano, who lacks the speed and scientific skill of his rival.

Gene Straus, local sportsman, who is taking a personal interest in Goldberg, has engaged

George Butch and Billy Smith, local professional boxers, to be his proteges for the match with Alfano. Both Kessler and Smith are putting Goldberg through strenuous sparring bouts in training workouts at a local gymnasium.

Buy Red Crown

The High-Grade Gasoline

and You Buy More Miles per Gallon

Many think of motor performance in terms of "car"—as a matter of fact it is the gasoline in the tank that plays the leading part, for gasoline is the propelling force.

To appreciate this, recall that embarrassing incident of being "out of gas." As gasoline is the leading factor in performance, we are up to the point of quality.

Red Crown is the standard, high quality gasoline. It has stood the test of time; been proved and approved by millions of motorists.

It will produce more power—more speed—more mileage—per gallon, at a lower cost, than any other gasoline you can buy because the arrangement of the boiling point fractions is scientifically correct.

It vaporizes to the last drop—it delivers a bigger value per dollar spent than any other commodity we know.

CONTRACTS FOR PRISON LABOR LET PRIVATELY

C. Carson to Take Over Broom Factory, D. M. Oberman Gets Shirt and Overall Production.

JEFFERSON CITY, May 7.—The State Penal Board, which is handing direct sale in the open market of a major portion of the entire industrial department products, to return to the "cut, make and trim" policy of making goods for private contractors, has entered into contracts with selected contractors for some of the prison products without receiving competitive bids, it was learned today.

As related in the Post-Dispatch the prison board is returning to the "cut, make and trim" policy this month, and is taking its products off the open market, except shoes and part of the work clothing and shirt production. The prison factories annually manufacture millions of dollars worth of shoes, clothing, brooms, rope, twine and other products. C. C. Carson of Jefferson City, formerly a prison contractor, will take over production of the broom factory tomorrow. D. M. Oberman, of Jefferson City former prison contractor will take over part of the production of overalls and pants. The percentage of production that will take over has not been definitely settled, it was said.

No Bids Received.

John T. Burnett, member of the board and superintendent of industries said these contracts had been entered into without receiving bids. Burnett stated the prison board had confidence in these manufacturers and believed they would take enough goods to keep the factories busy and the convicts working. He stated on inquiry that several bids probably would have been received from other manufacturers, if the board had issued proposals, but it had not been considered necessary.

Oberman, who will get a considerable part of the clothing production, is a close friend of Gov. Baker and of Dr. Cortez F. Dalton, chairman of the State Penal Board. He is an honorary colonel on Baker's personal staff. Oberman and Enloe both are directors in a local bank. Enloe, Oberman and Carson, who takes over the broom factory, are directors in a mining company operating in the Picher Oklahoma field.

Burnett formerly was superintendent of manufacturing for the private factories operated by Oberman in Missouri and was a stockholder in the Oberman company when appointed to the prison board by Gov. Baker. At that time he stated he would dispose of his stock.

The State law provides for advertising by the board of sales of its products, but one section leaves a loophole by stating that the board, in its discretion, make such sales by advertisement—and award the contract to the highest and best bidder.

Under the "cut, make and trim" system the contractor furnishes the material and pays the State a stipulated amount per unit of goods manufactured. The State furnishes the buildings, machinery, convict labor, power, convicts and guards and supervises manufacturing.

Under the broom contract Carson will pay the State from 50 cents to $1 a dozen for brooms manufactured. The amount varying with the grade of broom.

While the "cut, make and trim" system relieves the penal board of possible loss on its products through fluctuations in material prices and changes in market conditions, it also results in the State receiving less money from the convict labor. It deprives the State of a chance to make the same profit on manufactured products that it afforded the private manufacturer through exercise of business judgment.

Members of the board admitted that the "cut, make and trim" system would not produce enough revenue to pay expenses of the prison unless the number of factories was greatly increased. It is estimated that the State will get about $1.25 a day a convict under "cut, make and trim" and only 150 of the 700 convicts are employed in the industries. The per capita daily cost in the prison is 98 cents a convict.

Atlanta Prisoner Married.

ATLANTA, Ga., May 7.—Culminating a romance of several years standing, Mrs. Almida Allread, 24-year-old actress of Cleveland, O., today was the bride of E. F. Day, 44, after a ceremony performed within the Atlanta Federal prison, where her husband is serving a four-year sentence for using the mails to defraud. Day was convicted under the name of J. C. Black. The marriage ceremony was performed in the office of Warden Snook, with only a few witnesses. Mrs. Day is known on the stage as Aliene Astor. Her husband has nearly three years to serve.

ROBERTSON AIRCRAFT COMPANY TO SPRAY TENNESSEE COTTON

Contract Is Let in Attempt to Rid 5000-Acre Tract of Land of Boll Weevil.

William Robertson, head of the Robertson Aircraft Corporation, located at Lambert-St. Louis Flying Field, today announced the acceptance by his concern of a contract to spray 5000 acres of Tennessee cotton land with arsenic by airplane. In an effort to exterminate the boll weevil, the most destructive of cotton plant pests.

The contract was let by the finishing second and Bill Strap of Washington, D. C. The land to be sprayed is near Memphis. The spraying, which is done by attaching a "hopper" of arsenic to the undercarriage of a plane flown low over the ground, will begin about June 1. To be effective it is necessary that the arsenic be distributed during early morning hours, when the cotton plants are still heavy with dew. The cost of the arsenic and use of the airplane is eight cents an acre, Robertson said.

Win $25,000 Suit for Auto Death.

NEW YORK, May 7.—A verdict for $25,000 in favor of the widow of Prof. Ernest J. Fluegel, killed in an automobile accident last December, was returned in Supreme Court yesterday against Frederic R. Confort, internationally known lawyer, and the Stogol Taxi Cab Co. Mrs. Fluegel had sued for $50,000. Prof. Fluegel was killed when an automobile owned by Confort and a taxicab collided, the automobile crushing him as he stood near by.

CITY RETAINS CONWAY ELDER TO FIGHT FIREMEN'S SUIT

Estimate Board to Pay Him $2500 If He Wins Fight Against Salary Increase, $1500 If Otherwise.

The board of Estimate and Apportionment yesterday voted unanimously to retain Conway Elder, former Judge of the State Supreme Court, as special counsel for the city in the mandamus proceeding instituted in the State Supreme Court by city firemen to obtain a $25 a month salary increase. Elder is to receive $2500 if he defeats the suit, and $1500 if otherwise.

Comptroller Nolte, a member of the board, said the importance of the suit, involving a question of a provision of the City Charter, warranted employment of special counsel. As has been told, the board did not include in the present budget bill any appropriation to cover the salary increase, which was approved at the election April 7, and the firemen have sued to compel the board to include such an appropriation. City officials estimate the raise would amount to $270,000 a year.

APPLICATION FOR BAIL FOR "DINTY" COLBECK IS DENIED

St. Louis Gangster's Attorneys Sought His Release Pending Decision on Writ of Superedeas.

CHICAGO, May 7.—Application for bail for "Dinty" Colbeck, leader of the Egan gang, now serving a 25-year sentence in the Federal Penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kan., for his part in the Shannon (Ill.) mail robbery, was denied yesterday by Judges Mischler and Page of the Circuit Court of Appeals.

Decision on a writ of superedeas for Colbeck is pending and it was desired to have Colbeck released on bond until a decision is handed down.

Colbeck was represented by L. S. Harvey, Kansas City (Kan.) attorney, and Lee Rand of Leavenworth, Kan.

Arguments on a writ of superedeas filed in behalf of Frank Hackethal, one of the eight convicted with Colbeck, were heard yesterday by the Circuit Court of Appeals here. It also to Hackethal's roadside at Mitchell, Ill., that the $34,000 obtained in the robbery was taken and divided, the Government alleged in the trial of the case.

CRAIG CULLAM eyes. "He couldn't see but he knew that, for ment, he couldn't go on a despicable role.

Flinging aside the turban that formed his costume, he walked to the table and reached for the glass. His gait was one he used in the big play, but he wasn't acting. He was literally groping through fog of wretchedness.

His audience applauded begging for more burlesque. Lam lifted the glass to his lips and tossed it to the ceiling. He set it down among its partially filled. "Too hot for more dancing," he said, "I'll be back in a moment."

He reached over and Mariana to her feet, des- pite protests. "We'll go dancing, a midnight swim."

She was startled, a little. "His familiarity?" He had never before her by her first name, Mariana. She looked at her with that guide her through the warm, scented darkness of the garden. How she could ever have been so mistaken in human nature. She could have taken her oath that Craig Cullam was all she believed him to be—fine and strong and honorable and tender.

Yet here he was suddenly revealed as a monster. A man who made open love to his friend's wife behind his back. A man who drank and sang and danced with disgusting abandon.

Dick was talking to her, but she scarcely heeded what he said: "told you, didn't I? Now maybe you'll believe—Can't be too careful—Don't know what Charles was about."

He stopped suddenly at a band in the path and took her by both shoulders, shaking her soundly. "What the devil is the matter with you, Doris? I've asked you three times if!"

"Oh do forgive me," she was contrite. "I didn't mean to be rude. Honestly, I—I was thinking of something."

"You were thinking how quickly your fine actor changes his affections, I dare say," he sneered. "An admirable specimen—making love to another man's wife behind his back—and not even having the decency to conceal it from the crowd!"

"Oh please don't, Dick, I'm so tired—what difference does it make what Mr. Cullam does?"

"You're in love with him still!" Jervis ground out. "By Heaven, you're in love with him still!"

Doris made no reply. She was too weary to protest. Nothing mattered any more.

Jervis saw red with rage. He seized Doris, crushed her to him and kissed her despite her struggles.

The next moment he lay dazed on the gravelled path and Craig Cullam stood over him with murder in his eyes.

TODAY'S PUZZLE

Each number in the puzzle indicates the position of the first letter of a word.

Each word reads from left to right (horizontal) or downward (vertical), according to position. Lettered in correctly, words that cross will interlock.

Each number in the white squares also refers to a definition in the accompanying table.

Each definition suggests a word possessing the exact number of letters to fit the white space allotted to it.

Each white space is to receive one letter only. Words start only in numbered squares.

Children's Bedtime Story

By Thornton W. Burgess

A Test of Mother Love

A mother's love may often quail. But in the end it will not fail.

—Old Mother Nature.

She was quite used up, was little Mrs. Timmy

MRS. TIMMY the Flying Squirrel had bravely carried her four babies to a place of safety out of the path of the Red Terror, and she had been just in the nick of time. She was quite used up, was little Mrs. Timmy. How her heart did thump! But though she and the babies were safe for the time being, she was hardly less frightened than she had been at first. She knew that there was no knowing where that fire, the Red Terror, might spread to. A little change of wind might send it straight to where they had found safety, and it would no longer be safe.

So just as soon as Mrs. Timmy had got her breath and had rested a wee bit she started to move those babies again. As before she carried them by the skin of the neck, just as Mother Cat carries her kittens. She didn't have to hurry so fast this time, but she was more tired than before and she had farther to go. She went so far with the first one before she could find another safe hiding place that she was sadly worried about the babies left behind, and hurried back so fast that again, she was panting and out of breath and so tired that it seemed to her that she couldn't she just couldn't, make that long journey three times more.

But when she had carried the first one to a place of safety she was worried for fear something might happen to the others while she was gone and this fear gave her strength to hurry back. And when she got back she began to worry over the one left all alone in the new place of safety. An enemy might find that baby. Anyway, it would be dreadfully lonely and frightened there in a time he discovered the Red Terror it had swept through where his family had been living, and so far as he knew they had been burned to death. So Timmy was to be excused for not being on hand and helping Mrs. Timmy.

The carrying of those helpless babies to a place of safety was a real test of mother love. Nothing else could have kept that little mother going. But at last she dropped the last of the babies beside the others, and then, panting and gasping, she lay down with them and wondered what she should do if that Red Terror should follow them there and drive them out again, for she felt that she couldn't, she just couldn't move all those babies again.

But the Red Terror, the fire which had been started by a burning cigarette carelessly thrown from an automobile into some dry leaves by the side of the old road in the Green Forest, was steadily moving in another direction and Mrs. Timmy had nothing further to fear from it. It had done all the harm it could do her for the present, and that was plenty. But the fear of it

no more moth-holes

NOW YOU CAN MOTHPROOF THE CLOTH ITSELF

The Husband—"I need my dress clothes in a hurry and I suppose they'll come out of some box, wrinkled and reeking of moth-balls."

The Wife—"They're not wrinkled! Nor smelly, either! They're hanging right in the closet. This year, I made them mothproof with Larvex."

New—a sure protection from moth-damage!

Larvex makes woolen things mothproof

Larvex is odorless

AT LAST you can know that your woolen things are absolutely protected from moth-damage. Larvex, a great new product, protects them in a new way. It makes the cloth itself mothproof.

Spray Larvex on anything woolen. It penetrates the wool fibres and becomes a part of the cloth. Once an article is sprayed, no moth-worm will eat it. Understand, the moth itself is harmless. It simply lays eggs. But these eggs hatch into the tiny moth-worms that do all the damage. And they eat all year round.

But moth-worms will not touch any fabric which is protected with Larvex. Many leading American textile manufacturers have found Larvex such sure protection that they use it to make their products mothproof for you. You can now buy many woolen things in the stores which are already protected with Larvex.

Spray your woolen things with Larvex. Then you needn't wrap and pack them away. Larvex needs no assistance. It is sure protection. After spraying, put your clothes back in the closet. No moth-worm will eat them.

Larvex is as odorless as water. It is stainless and colorless. It won't burn or explode. It is non-injurious. Spray it anywhere—except on furs. It is very easy to use. Simply insert the Larvex Atomizer in the bottle of Larvex. Pump up and down with one finger. This throws a powerful spray that mothproofs every woolen thing it touches. Larvex, with new-type atomizer, is $1.50. Once you have atomizer, buy Larvex only at $1.00. At drug, department and furniture stores. Get Larvex today.

The Larvex Corporation, Brooklyn, N. Y.

THE new-type Larvex Atomizer is a mechanical masterpiece. It is as near perfection as any piece of machinery ever designed by man. It makes the spraying of Larvex an exceptionally easy and thorough job. Never use anything but the Larvex Atomizer with Larvex.

What do you use for washing windows?

Throw them all in the discard
~at last there's a better way

THE days of window washing drudgery are over—for those who read and heed this message.

An amazing new liquid now takes the place of water, soap and powder—sponge, chamois, squeegee. Just moisten a small clean cloth with a few drops of this liquid and rub lightly over the window. Then wipe the window dry. That's all you have to do. But what a transformation! Windows shine like clearest crystal. No other cleaning method gives results like this. No other way is half so quick or easy.

Free—if it fails

The name of this new liquid is C-it. C-it is pure and odorless—as harmless as clean water. But a thousand times more cleaning. You may think we're too enthusiastic about C-it, yet all we do is to repeat what users say. But test it for yourself. We make it easy for you to try it on one window. Then decide if what we say is true. If you don't agree, return the unused contents to your grocer and get back every penny. This freetest plan, you must agree, is the fairest offer anyone can make. In fairness to yourself, please make the test today.

The Man on the Sandbox

by L. C. Dams

THE LU BLUE BLUES.

WHEN Blue, about to score the tying run, fell down before he reached the pay-off station. Another game the Browns boys had won. Much to the Georgia Peach's indignation. For, when the game was booted in the sewer, Lu Blue was blue, but Cobb was even bluer.

The outlook had assumed a rosy hue. With Tigers occupying all the bases. In fact the Browns were feeling rather blue. While smiles were seen upon the Tigers' faces. It seemed as though there would be nothing to it. When Brother Blue, alas! fell down and blew it!

See where a couple of bogus Pullman porters have been passing bogus Pullman pay checks. Merchants are warned not to be caught napping by the phoney "Georges."

The man on the sandbox says that if the lawyers who are making speeches condemning the prevalent methods of legal procedure will practice what they preach there will soon be a change for the better.

There was a time when shipping beer to St. Louis would be like sending coals to Newcastle. Them days are gone forever.

Jim Corbett has written an article telling how to raise boys. Never having raised any, Jim is eminently qualified to give a theoretical treatise on the subject.

If Jim had ever been put through the third degree by a 6-year-old human questionaire he wouldn't be so peppy.

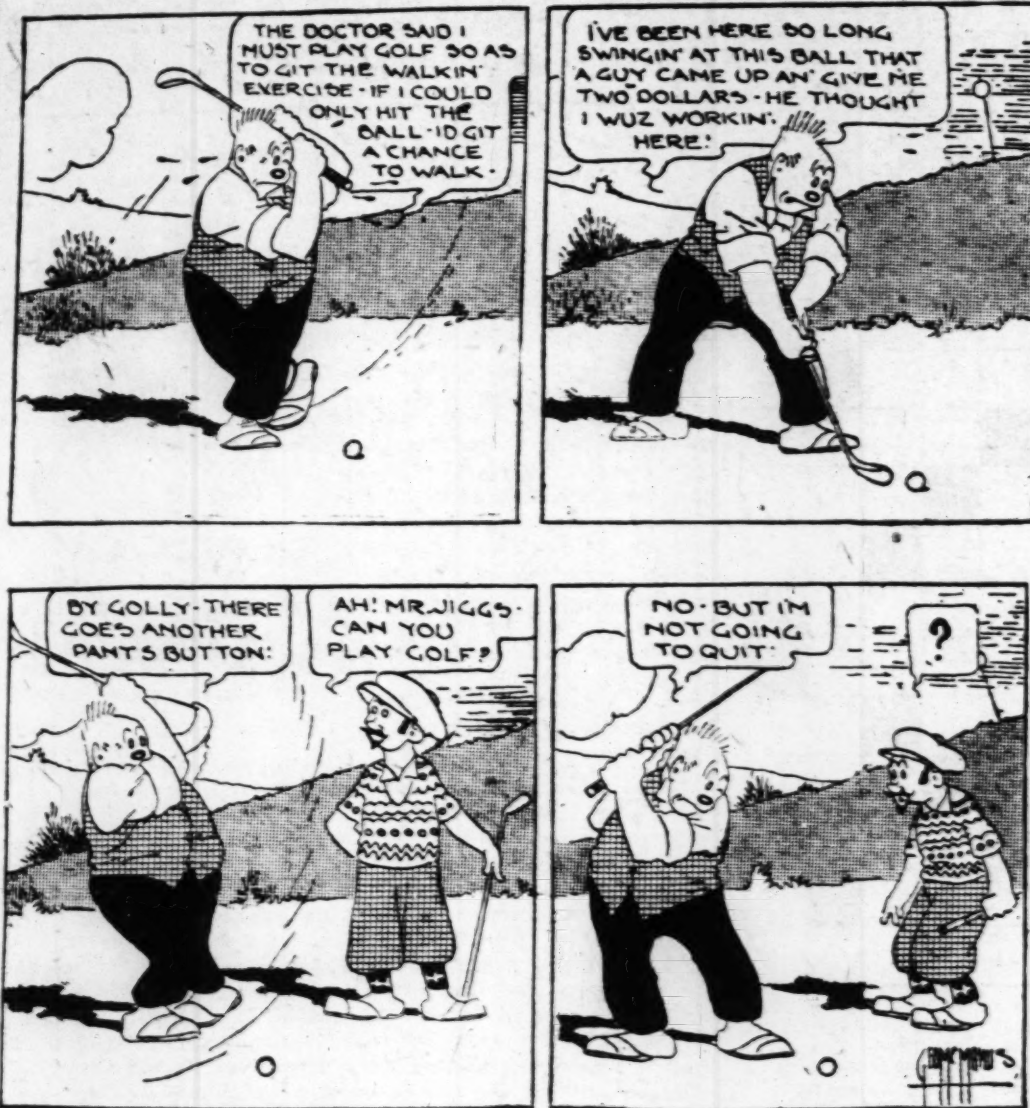

Although Clayton has outgrown her jail she voted against a new one. The people decided that the old hoosgow was good enough for them.

REPUDIATES HIS MURDER STORY; ACCUSES OTHERS

Richard Eoff, 22, at Inquest, Denies He Killed Service Car Driver—Had Previously Confessed.

NAMES PHYSICIAN AND ANOTHER MAN

Testifies He Admitted the Crime Because He "Felt Sorry for Doctor and Wife."

Testifying today at the Coroner's inquest into the death of Alfred Craske, service car driver, Richard Eoff, 22 years old, of 2749 La Salle street, repudiated a confession he made to police after his arrest in which he admitted killing Craske, and accused Dr. William J. Voss of 4444 McPherson avenue, and a friend of Dr. Voss, whom he described as Arthur Koerner, of committing the crime.

After hearing his testimony and a categorical denial by Dr. Voss, the Coroner's jury held Eoff without bond for homicide and held Dr. Voss and Koerner on charges of being accessories before the fact.

Voss Arrested. Eoff was arrested at the inquest, which was held in Kirkwood, and was taken to the county jail at Clayton with Eoff. An officer for the arrest of Koerner was seen.

Eoff testified that he became acquainted with Dr. Voss last month at the Clayton jail, where Voss was being held on a charge of highway robbery.

While in jail, Eoff testified, he and Dr. Voss heard another prisoner relate that a large amount of money was buried on a deserted farm at Valley and Stricker roads in St. Louis County. He said that Dr. Voss remarked, "I own a half-interest in that farm." Later, Dr. Voss told him that there was no treasure buried on the farm.

Dr. Voss obtained his release from Clayton jail and he obtained a bondman for me and got me out April 27," Eoff stated. "I saw him the next day at his office and he and a man named Arthur Koerner, his close friend, gave me a revolver and told me to go out and hold up people to get funds to promote the oil venture."

Eoff got cold feet and returned to his office the next day. Later that day, last Wednesday, I hired a car to drive me out to the deserted farm to search for the treasure. As we were driving out Clayton road we met Dr. Voss and Koerner returning to St. Louis.

Dr. Voss stopped us and told us to take his machine back to St. Louis as he and Koerner would go out and look for the supposed hidden money. I took Dr. Voss' machine back to St. Louis and Dr. Voss and Koerner went to the farm with Craske.
